

The YNH Projects

Office of the President

March, 1991

What are our needs?

Museums:

- Art
- Kelsey
- Anthropology

Undergraduate Education:

- State-of-the-art Classrooms
- Lecture Halls
- Multimedia Facilities
- Counseling Space
- UG Programs (International)
- A major visible presence!!!

General Central Campus Needs:

- Exhibition Galleries
- "Gathering Spaces"
- "Entertainment Spaces"
- Parking
- Good architecture!!!

Programs:

- Institute of Humanities
- International Studies

Site #1:

- Advantages:
- central location for "visitors"
 - axis with Rackham (graduate vs undergraduate)
 - "entry" building to campus

- Problems:
- parking
 - not central to undergraduate programs
 - constrained (small) site

Site #2

- Advantages:
- central location for undergraduate programs
 - proximity to undergraduate residence halls
 - center of performance/exhibition spaces
 - proximity to Anthropology, Natural History
 - only remaining large site on Central Campus (estimated 500,000 nsf available)
 - easy public access from Washtenaw/Huron
 - planned expansion of parking deck

Linkages

The "Your Name Here" Center for Undergraduate Education

Some analogies:

- an "undergraduate Rackham"
- a "liberal arts" version of Harvard Science Center
- elements of Sackler Museum and Wexner Center
- Athenaeum: "Greek vision of liberal education...
...rhetoric, drama, dance,..."

Bottom Line: The focal point of undergraduate education at the University of Michigan!

The "YNH" Scholars Program

Objective: A $100 M of endowment fund to support merit-based four-year scholarships designed to attract to Michigan students with unusual potential for leadership.

Purpose: To provide a Michigan education to the next generation of leadership...from across the state, throughout the nation, and around the world.

Criteria: Academic achievement, leadership in extracurricular activities, community service, and other evidence of unusual discipline, motivation, and creativity.
