Name	Sumedha Gupta
Manuscript Title	EFFECTS OF SOCIAL DISTANCING POLICY ON LABOR MARKET OUTCOMES
Submitted To	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Contemporary Economic Policy <input type="checkbox"/> Economic Inquiry
Date	June 22, 2021

Each author must disclose if another party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

Not applicable. Paper not shared with any parties prior to its circulation.

Each author must disclose any paid or unpaid positions that they hold (or any close relative or partner holds) as officer, director, or board member of relevant non-profit organizations, or profit-making entities. A "relevant" organization is one whose policy positions, goals, or financial interests relate to the article.

No financial disclosures.

Identify each interested party from whom you (or any close relative or partner) have received financial support of at least $10,000 in the past three years, in the form of consultant fees, retainers, grants, and the like (including in-kind support, such as providing access to data). If the support in question comes with a non-disclosure obligation, that fact should be stated, along with as much information as the obligation permits. An "interested" party is any individual, group, or organization that has a financial ideological, or political stake related to the article.

Not received any financial support.

For any paper involving the collection of data on human subjects the author(s) must disclose whether they have obtained Institutional Review Board (IRB) approval; if no IRB approval was obtained, the reason should be stated.

Not applicable; secondary de-identified data.
