My sincere thanks go to each and every alumna and alumnus who helped make last year's Law School Fund Campaign a success. Despite some very trying economic events last Fall, the dollar totals remained essentially even with those of the year before. This is in itself a feat of which we can all be proud. In addition, our percentage of alumni participation in the annual fund rose to a historical high—a clear indication of the broad base of alumni support that the Law School enjoys.

The following is a brief sketch of the figures which you will find later explained in greater detail:

Total Dollars 1987	$1,863,365.07
Total Dollars 1986	$1,890,902.71
Total alumni gifts '87	$1,415,597.17
Total alumni gifts '86	$1,455,568.63
Percentage of alumni participation '87	45.0
Percentage of alumni participation '86	44.3

This wonderful record is one that virtually all of the other law schools in the country, including our peers, would be delighted to be able to report. We cannot thank you enough for helping to maintain the excellence of our programs and the strength of our School, nor can we overemphasize the importance of your continued support.

During 1987 the University completed its five-year Campaign for Michigan. Many new gifts were received to benefit the Law School, to strengthen the endowment, to renovate several important Hutchins Hall classrooms and to provide additional financial aid resources. To those of you who participated in the Campaign for Michigan and made a contribution for the benefit of the Law School, I express heartfelt and sincere thanks for your generosity on behalf of the faculty and students of the School.

Faced with continuing erosion in the percentage of support received from the State of Michigan, the University has mandated another double-digit tuition increase for the coming academic year. This will put even greater pressure on our limited financial aid resources, and we will again have to scramble to find sufficient funds to enable those students who have qualified for admission to the School to undertake their legal studies. Without your continued support of the Law School Fund, we would be unable to meet the need for financial aid. This year tuition will rise to $12,957 for a non-resident and $6,289 for a resident student, and when room and board, books and other living expenses are added, these numbers rise quickly to $19,507 and $12,839 respectively. In order to meet the rising demand for financial aid, it is necessary that we redouble our efforts to continue and increase the strength of the Law School Fund, which is such an important source of these funds. If your situation allows, please consider a generous increase in your gift to the Law School Fund this year, which you can earmark for financial aid purposes.

The Law School has been blessed with an endowment for faculty support created by William W. Cook at the time of his death. This endowment has supported over 50 years of faculty research, writing and publications. We are now at a point where the Cook funds alone can no longer shoulder the costs of increased research being undertaken at the Law School. We must find additional support for our faculty research program. This is essential if we are to continue to attract and retain the finest faculty, attract the finest applicants, and maintain our position as one of the foremost centers of legal research in the world. This coming year will see several major fund-raising efforts in this regard—one to establish a research professorship in honor of our good friend Professor Emeritus Roy F. Proffitt, which has been sponsored by the Class of 1963 as their 25th Reunion gift to the Law School, and a second to establish the Wade H. McCree Jr. Professorship at the Law School in memory and honor of the former Solicitor General of the United States and our late colleague. Both of these projects are crucial to the continued strength of our faculty and their research. Contributions to either of these worthwhile professorships will be welcome.

We have received a generous commitment from a New York foundation to enable us to begin planning for the establishment of a facility within the Allan and Alene Smith underground law library addition to house, protect and display the library's noteworthy rare book collection. The grant covers only a portion of the total cost, and much remains to be done before the rare book facility becomes a reality.

In closing, I would like to extend the sincere thanks of each and every one of us at the Law School for your generous and untiring support of the School. Without you and this magnificent support, we would be a far different institution. Your dollars and your hours of time provide the edge that makes us a dynamic and exciting center of legal education and research, and keeps us so highly regarded among the law schools of this country and the world. We will continue to strive to be the best that we possibly can. With your continued support we cannot fail.

Dear Lee:

I am pleased to report that the 1987 Annual Law School Fund produced $1,863,365.07, of which $1,415,597.17 was received from a record number of alumni givers: 6,503. This was also a record high 45% of alumni contributing, almost 1% more than last year. Only a handful of schools with a long head start in annual giving programs can match The University of Michigan Law School in the proportion of alumni support.

We are particularly proud that these results were achieved at a time of great economic uncertainty. The Fund's progress in this difficult year was due in large part to the extraordinary efforts of Jonathan Lowe, his skillful staff and a large group of dedicated volunteers. Fortunately, the team started early, and were well ahead by the stock market drop of October 22. While many other law schools experienced significant declines, the Law School Fund essentially equaled last year. At the same time, capital contributions of nearly $2,000,000 were made to the Law School by alumni in this final year of the Campaign for Michigan (capital contributions to the School exceeded $8 million in that multi-year Campaign).

Why do so many alumni work tirelessly to support their school? In part, it is because their investment in time and money has been so richly rewarded. It is widely recognized (not only in academic circles) that Michigan Law School is almost without peer in the quality of legal education. The value of a Michigan Law degree and the reputation of our wonderful school increase each year. For that, we thank you, each of your predecessors who served as superbly as Dean and our outstanding faculty.

I know that I speak for all the volunteers of the Fund (a team so ably recruited by my predecessors Elliott and Odgers) in reporting that the Fund is in good shape and prepared to support most proudly that margin of excellence for The University of Michigan Law School in the years ahead.

Sincerely,

Kay Felt

Dear Kay:

Setting new records seems to have become a way of life for the Law School Fund, but the extraordinary performance of the Fund in this trying economic year is a cause for special celebration and gratitude. On behalf of the entire Law School community, it is my pleasure to thank you, the hundreds of volunteers, and the thousands of alumni and friendly contributors who have together created this important means of enriching legal education at Michigan.

It is an unfortunate fact of life that the costs of legal education are rising more rapidly than our traditional sources of revenue. The decline of public support for legal education has mandated higher tuition fees, which in turn has increased the need for financial aid for our students. The attractions of the practice of law, which include its financial rewards, have made the market for the best teachers and scholars more competitive. And the rise in the demand for knowledge from law school communities has augmented the costs of research. The Law School Fund provides significant help to the School in meeting each of these needs.

Let me close with warm thanks to you personally, Kay, for your energetic and productive performance as National Chair of the Law School Fund.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Lee C. Bollinger
Dean

The Presidents Club

The University of Michigan Presidents Club is one of the most respected organizations of its type in the country. The Presidents Club has been enthusiastically supported by many Law School alumni and a list of the Law members through February 29, 1988 follows:

The University Deans Club

This designation recognizes individuals who make an annual gift of $500 to a particular school or college within the University.

In our list below, we have included Law School alumni and friends of the School who have made such gifts to the Law School (including gifts for the Capital Campaign as well as for the Law School Fund). In order to make this list correspond to our fiscal year for the Law School Fund and this report, (March 1 to February 29), we include here only those who qualified between March 1, 1987 and February 29, 1988.

Matching Gifts

Do you work for a company or a law firm that has a matching gift program? If you do, your gift to the Law School Fund can usually be matched dollar-for-dollar by your company. All you need to do is obtain a matching gift form from your employer, fill it out, and send it to us with your donation to the Law School Fund. It will be processed here, returned to your employer, and your gift will become doubly valuable.

During the 1987 Law School Fund campaign matching gifts were received from the following:
