

What's At Home?

*Access to information usually requires a fixed home address and/or fixed receiver equipment, e.g., mailbox, phone jack, or cable TV link. Wireless mobile receivers, laptop computers and homepages on the Internet have introduced new spatial dynamics by adding a virtual home to the physical home.

**Divine, supernatural, or ancestral blessings of the home often enhance the sense of place/security.

J. Nystuen,
UM Urban & Regional Planning