

Supplementary Figure 5: Correlation coefficient between SCIAMACHY and WRF-Chem simulations plotted as function of latitudinal and longitudinal offset. Each unit shift (1 grid point) corresponds to 0.33 degrees. Notice the high correlation close to zero offset, indicating the source location and transport in simulations is representative of the observations.