Good morning!

It's early. But we're here, and we're glad you are too.

We are.....

You are.....?

What we will do today:

- Talk about XML in general and the TEI in particular—what it is, and what it's good for
- Learn the parts of a TEI document
- Tackle hands-on exercises using the <oXygen/> XML editor
- Consider how to approach encoding projects thoughtfully and practically
- Point out some tools and resources to learn more

What we won't do today:

- Memorize every element and attribute recommended by the TEI Guidelines

Proposed Agenda:

8:30–9	Refreshments and computer setup
9–9:45	Welcome and Lecture: Introduction to XML and the TEI
9:45–10:15	Exercise: Document analysis
10:15–10:30	Break
10:30–11:15	Exercise: TEI encoding 1
11:15–11:45	Lecture: What can you do with encoded texts?
11:45 a.m. – 12:15	Lecture: Introduction to the TEI header
12:15–1:30	Lunch
1:30–2:15	Exercise: TEI encoding 2
2:15–3	Lecture: How to publish your TEI documents
