2016-06-10

A Place to Stand: Fulcrum and Lever Press

Welzenbach, Rebecca

http://hdl.handle.net/2027.42/120938
● Five-year pilot funded by a consortium more than 40 liberal arts college libraries
● Governed by representatives of participating libraries
● Implementation via Amherst College Press and Michigan Publishing
Five-year pilot funded by a consortium of more than 40 liberal arts college libraries
Governed by representatives of participating libraries
Implementation via Amherst College Press and Michigan Publishing

The press is...
- Guided by the mission and ethos of liberal arts colleges
- Platinum Open Access (no author fees)
- Born digital scholarship
Five-year pilot funded by a consortium of more than 40 liberal arts college libraries
Governed by representatives of participating libraries
Implementation via Amherst College Press and Michigan Publishing

The press is...
- Guided by the mission and ethos of liberal arts colleges
- Platinum Open Access (no author fees)
- Born digital scholarship

Our publications will...
- Show a deep commitment to interdisciplinarity
- Engage with major social issues
- Blur the lines between research and teaching

Our publications will...
- Show a deep commitment to interdisciplinarity
- Engage with major social issues
- Blur the lines between research and teaching
The press is...
- Guided by the mission and ethos of liberal arts colleges
- Platinum Open Access (no author fees)
- Born digital scholarship

Our publications will...
- Show a deep commitment to interdisciplinarity
- Engage with major social issues
- Blur the lines between research and teaching

- Five-year pilot funded by a consortium of more than 40 liberal arts college libraries
- Governed by representatives of participating libraries
- Implementation via Amherst College Press and Michigan Publishing
“While this scholarly infrastructure was built over centuries,” Waters says, “the cyber infrastructure is being built much more quickly. At the Mellon Foundation, we want to help accelerate the next stage of this dynamic change and make the digital environment a natural place to do scholarship.”
All scholarship is digital.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Event Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2015</td>
<td>Requirements gathering, develop personas, user stories, and wireframes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2016</td>
<td>Begin co-development with DCE</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2017</td>
<td>Beta launch: 4 UP case studies - supplemental materials only</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2018</td>
<td>U-M Press case study: digital-only monograph + 3D model + data set</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Future home of Michigan Publishing content + University of Michigan Press Ebooks

White-label platform for client publishers (e.g., Lever Press)
Press in the front!

Library in the back!
Flexible
By adopting an agile development approach and working in partnership with the Hydra open source community, Fulcrum is responsive to the changing needs of digital scholars.

Durable
Built on research university library infrastructure specifically designed to curate digital objects, Fulcrum is a trusted steward committed to preservation and stability.

Discoverable
Interoperable with other publishing tools and integrated into the information supply chain, Fulcrum ensures that content is discovered by readers and impact is tracked.
Flexible

rich media support
active development community
accommodates other web-based Resources & formats
Durable

open source repository framework
research library infrastructure
persistent identifiers
metrics for impact, credit
clear, machine-readable licenses/copyright info integration with information supply chain(s)
Thank you!

Image credits:
Archimedes and the lever, public domain, https://www.math.nyu.edu/~crorres/Archimedes/Lever/LeverIntro.html
Mullet Icon, public domain, https://thenounproject.com/search/?q=mullet&i=141572