Global Road Warrior
In addition to basic country facts, Global Road Warrior delivers information related to travel concerns regarding security, health, utilities, communication and entertainment. The Business Culture and Culture & Society sections are pertinent to travelers with business in mind and help address some stereotypes. Other features of Global Road Warrior can also be useful sources for general study of a population and their lifestyles. Highlights include: a historical timeline, a language video dictionary and publications from the US, UK and Australian governments.

Cultural Competence: Getting Started

Increase intercultural awareness and competencies for traveling abroad and living among culturally diverse populations.

- Getting Started
- Diversity
- World Cultures
- Regional Cultures ▾
- Study/Work Abroad

How to Use This Guide

This guide will hopefully help you become more aware of different cultures and get started on building competencies. Keep in mind that increasing knowledge, building skills and shaping attitudes to communicate effectively and appropriately with others is an ongoing engagement with many different aspects to consider.

Included resource links will help you:

- Understand more about culture and cultural differences
- Become more aware of local diversity
- Find quick facts about a country, an ethnic group, or a religion
- Learn about the history, cultures and customs of a region or a country
- Prepare for going abroad

Terminology

This subject of cultural awareness and competencies includes a variety of terms, such as intercultural (interaction between at least two different cultures), intracultural (within the same culture), cross-cultural (comparing cultures), and multicultural (more than one culture).

Cultures are not necessarily divided by political boundaries, so intercultural communication is also distinct from international communication.

For more information, view Igor Ristić's Intracultural, Intercultural, Cross-Cultural, and International Communication: What's the Difference? article and UNESCO's Cultural Competences PDF.

WHAT ARE CULTURAL COMPETENCIES? WHY ARE THEY IMPORTANT?

The University of Michigan has a large international and interstate population. You may encounter people with different customs and values that may affect communication and mutual understanding.

For more information on cultural competencies, view UNESCO's Intercultural Competences brochure.

How do I communicate with someone from another culture?

Cultural competencies are knowledge, attitudes and skills that will help you interact more respectfully with others in a culturally diverse community within the U.S., or abroad. Knowing about the local culture of your destination may also help ease anxiety and shock, making your travels more enjoyable.
