Introduction

- My Diverse Employment Background
  - Spent 3 weeks and 1 day working in the JC Penney Manager Training Program,…
  - Worked at Special Libraries, Archives and Academic Libraries
  - Worked for a Library Software Company (Innovative)
  - Been in Technical Services and Systems
  - Moved to Collections and Administration
  - Always have been able to keep close with the patrons or end-users
Introduction

- Some presentation goals:
  - This is my approach and my philosophy about libraries and library services.
  - Academic libraries are all the same – they have different funding, staffing, student needs and faculty requests.
  - What works at one, may not work at another.
  - How can we frame problems and opportunities to ensure that we are meeting the needs of our patrons.
  - Great libraries are not designed by architects – but by librarians & library staff.

- The view of an iconoclast.
- Borrow this line from Pirates of Penzance:
  Frederic (to his fellow pirates): Individually, I love you all with affection unspeakable; but, collectively, I look upon you with a disgust that amounts to absolute detestation.

  From Gilbert and Sullivan’s Pirates of Penzance (or The Slave of Duty), 1879

Hospitality & Self-Service

- Hospitality, n. The virtue which induces us to feed and lodge certain persons who are not in need of food and lodging.
  ~ Ambrose Bierce, The Devil's Dictionary, 1911
- Hospitality is making your guests feel at home, even though you wish they were.
  ~ Unknown
- Share with God’s people who are in need. Practice hospitality.
  ~ Romans 12:13
Hospitality & Self-Service

- Disney Model
  - Excellent customer service
  - Excellent attention to detail
  - Things just run beautifully smooth
  - You really feel like they care about every person
  - You really feel that they care about YOU!

- Nordstrom Model
  - Employee Handbook is one card
  - “Our number one goal is to provide outstanding customer service”
  - Our only rule: “Use good judgment in all situations”

Corey Seeman (University of Michigan) - Where is the Hospitality in Your Library? Speaking of which, Where is Your Library? (UD Mercy - October 2017)

- Hall of Fame Hospitality Desk.
  - Over Hall of Fame Weekend, the “Hospitality Desk” manages all events
  - Used to be called Information Desk
  - Name was changed to the Hospitality Desk and Crew instill a culture of taking care of people
  - The goal is to make things right
Hospitality & Self-Service

- Hospitality can be modest and still be appreciated and useful

Corey Seeman (University of Michigan) - Where is the Hospitality in Your Library? Speaking at: UD Mercy October 2017

In general, Hospitality is…
- It is being available and visible
- It allows you to change what your patrons can expect from the library
- It is treating your users like customers (no matter what we call them)
- It is treating people well, even before you know who they are
- It is not simply luxury or excess

Librarians & library staff are amazing at providing service
- In many academic settings, the libraries are the element that people are most fond of in reviews and surveys
- In communities, libraries are often considered one of the most commonly cited benefit of a city or town
- In many ways, libraries are well suited to focus on hospitality
Hospitality & Self-Service

- With the advent of electronic resources and discovery layers – we have worked very hard to make the library mostly self-service
- We have to be very careful – because we could be leading to...

Corey Seeman (University of Michigan) - Where is the Hospitality in Your Library? Speaking of which, Where is Your Library? (UD Mercy - October 2017)

Comcast is pushing “self service” as their new and improved service model

The Self-Service Airport... (ATL 7/11/12)
Hospitality & Self-Service

The Self-Service Hotel...

That is great when people know what they want

This is not great when people don’t know what they need

We have seen a change in services and removal of the reference desk (among others)

This is when we have a problem...and an opportunity

So maybe what we need is...
Two Spaces of a Library

- How do they see us?
- Storage or Service?

Corey Seeman (University of Michigan) - Where is the Hospitality in Your Library? Speaking of which, Where is Your Library? (UD Mercy - October 2017)

There are two distinct spaces in a modern library:
- The Physical Space
- The Ethereal Space
- Both are critical for our work and for libraries everywhere
- Both are critical for considering outreach activities with our collections (esp. in business)

The Physical space of the library is used for quiet study and contemplation.
Two Spaces of a Library

- The Physical space of the library is used for managing printed collections...
- Which ARE STILL RELEVANT and USEFUL (though we may not be able to keep all we want)
- But it's not the biggest priority with building projects.
- In many ways - we focus heavily on the physical space.
- Study space can be managed by anyone on a campus!

Corey Seeman (University of Michigan) - Where is the Hospitality in Your Library? Speaking at: Where is Your Library? (UD Mercy - October 2017)

Two Spaces of a Library

- The Ethereal Space of the Library is where
- We connect with users
- We provide outreach
- We showcase our value to communities
- We make sense of “it all”
- We become the “Shell Answer Man”
- We SHINE

Hospitality at Kresge Library

- Kresge Library: Independent Library at University of Michigan - Ross School of Business (3700 FTE)
- Formerly staff of 20 FT people (8 librarians, 10 staff) with 4.5 FTE of temporary staff
- Open 108 service hours a week during the Fall and Winter terms

Corey Seeman (University of Michigan) - Where is the Hospitality in Your Library? Speaking of which, Where is Your Library? (UD Mercy - October 2017)

Hospitality at Kresge Library

- Joined the library in 2005 and became the director in 2006
- My goal as director has been to create the library I would want to use
- I am more concerned about what our students and faculty need than what libraries are doing elsewhere (instead of keeping up with other ABLD libraries)

Corey Seeman (University of Michigan) - Where is the Hospitality in Your Library? Speaking of which, Where is Your Library? (UD Mercy - October 2017)

Hospitality at Kresge Library

- Hospitality and Empathy are KEY TERMS for me
- Empathy has to work both ways – in balance
- More empathetic towards patrons – more work for staff
- More empathetic towards staff – maybe less services for patrons
- Without empathy, we cannot truly connect with our users.

Corey Seeman (University of Michigan) - Where is the Hospitality in Your Library? Speaking of which, Where is Your Library? (UD Mercy - October 2017)
Hospitality at Kresge Library

- We are a very different academic library
- Very strong proponent of the Nordstrom Way
- Always encourage staff to take care of the problem as best we can and sort out details later
- We want to be the service champions at the Ross School
- Draw examples from everywhere, not just our type of library
- DON'T RON JOHNSON YOUR LIBRARY (former CEO of JC Penney)!

Corey Seeman (University of Michigan) - Where is the Hospitality in Your Library? Speaking of which, Where is Your Library? (UD Mercy - October 2017)
Hospitality at Kresge Library

It never looks like this...

Though in libraries, we deal with cost containment targets more than increased revenue goals.

Is there a cost associated with being a hospitable library?

- Some are possible because of our size and budget
- Some have relatively modest cost with a good return
- Some have virtually no cost and a good return

Hospitality at Kresge Library

- Embedded Librarians for MAP & Action-Based Learning
  - This is not one of my ideas – but it grew as the school developed
  - Action-based Learning programs like MAP involve student groups working with corporate, governmental and nonprofit organizations
  - They often need very specialized research assistance
  - We assign librarians to each group to make it easier for the teams
  - We get a lot of "return business" after MAP is over
Hospitality at Kresge Library

- From the MBA surveys:
  - “Access to a dedicated librarian during MAP was AWESOME”
  - I had no idea until MAP how awesome the staff at Kresge is

Hospitality at Kresge Library

- Some have a modest cost associated with them.
- Need Supplies?
- Similar to many hotels that provide toothbrushes, etc. to travelers who forget items
  - We provide office supplies (name tents, envelopes, paper (for case interviews), pens, earplugs)
  - We used to charge (cost recovery) – but it was more work to track the money

Hospitality at Kresge Library

- Some have no real cost to the library
- Being hospitable and flexible with staff
- Corey’s theory
  - If I am flexible with you, please be flexible with our patrons
  - If I am not flexible with you, then you will not be expected to be flexible with our patrons
- Balancing Empathy between all staff and patrons
- Ties to Positive Organizational Scholarship
- Important for Modeling Good Behavior!
Hospitality at Kresge Library

- The most important element of hospitality is our demeanor
- We smile
- We wear name tags when working in the public
- To a person at Kresge, we reach out to patrons who look like they need help
- This is fairly unique at Ross
- So much has to do with the little things (Zombieland Rule #32 – Enjoy the Little Things)

Corey Seeman (University of Michigan) - Where is the Hospitality in Your Library? Speaking at which: Where is Your Library? (UD Mercy - October 2017)

Helping visitors and patrons.
- Squirrels at the Met (NYC)
- Bottle from Salem, NC - ca. 1790–1805.
- Snuffbox from Germany (Schrezheim manufactory), ca. 1761-1770. In Gallery 538 – closed the day I went.

Corey Seeman (University of Michigan) - Where is the Hospitality in Your Library? Speaking at which: Where is Your Library? (UD Mercy - October 2017)

Some things were tried and discontinued
- Maybe they were not popular... or too popular to support
- "Do not get married to the results" - Bernard Seeman (many times)
- Do not start with artificial metrics for success.
- We really have to trust ourselves to know if it is working or not.
Hospitality at Kresge Library

- Kresge Library Coat/Bag Check
  ~ Students were hesitant to take jackets and book bags to the Interview waiting area
  ~ They left them in the library while they went on their interview and we noticed an increase in thefts
  ~ We created a coat check at the Circ Desk
  ~ It became too big a distraction and we ended up cancelling the program

Corey Seeman (University of Michigan) - Where is the Hospitality in Your Library? Speaking of which, Where is Your Library? (UD Mercy - October 2017)

In Summary…

- Make all people feel welcome at your library
- Treat patrons the way that you would like to be treated (Golden Rule)
- “Point with your feet, not with your arm”
- Create the library you would want to use!
- When times are hard and resources (space, budget and personnel) are tight… being hospitable can be difficult
- We cannot always control how we are treated and what resources we are given… but we can control how we respond
- Yep… it's a cliché… but it works

Corey Seeman (University of Michigan) - Where is the Hospitality in Your Library? Speaking of which, Where is Your Library? (UD Mercy - October 2017)

Hospitality at Kresge Library Services

- So why did we change our name in 2014 to “Kresge Library Services?”
- Major construction project at Ross saw our space reduced from 27K square feet to 5K.
- Collection space reduced from 70K vol to 200.
Hospitality at Kresge Library Services

- Shifting from library as place to library as service.
- Creating an “ethereal library”
- Entrepreneurial Thinking involves:
  - New approach to a new (or old) problem
  - New market opportunity
  - Creative thinking
  - Empathetic focus (Design Thinking)
  - Willingness to fail
- Entrepreneurial Libraries do not have an exit strategy!

The NEW Kresge Library Services at the University of Michigan

- “A completely re-thought Kresge Library Services, transitions from a collection of physical reference materials to a full suite of information resources and research services, guided by expert staff.” – Ross Dividend, Fall 2016 (Ross Alumni Magazine)
- The library did not close, but become virtually unrecognizable.
- You do not always choose your path, but how you respond.

Hospitality at Kresge Library Services

- At Kresge, the “Ethereal Library’s” value proposition is:
  - Live within the restrictions of virtually no collection space.
  - Figure out new collaboration mechanisms to serve our community.
  - Forget the dead, take care of the living!
  - If you are service-oriented, then you can survive these dramatic changes!

Squirrel at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor
Hospitality at Kresge Library Services

- Focus on what we can do vs. what we have done.
  - Made decisions like not bringing back course reserves – do not have the space to manage it.
  - Still have evening reference via chat and email – all done remotely.

Hospitality at Kresge Library Services

- Embrace the change
  - NOT a library problem of the 21st century.
  - Changes in the last 50 years:
    - Copy cataloging
    - Local online catalogs & shared systems
    - Expanded access (TOC, more subject headings)
    - Shared catalogs (MelCat, etc.)
    - Discovery layers
  - Working papers management → digital repositories
  - Coffee and food in the library
  - How many staff are checking in serials?

Patron-Driven Services and the Power of Yes

- Patron-Driven Services is a somewhat new way of thinking.
  - So much of the library literature has been focused on figuring out how to get patrons to use our services
  - Maybe...JUST MAYBE...we are providing the wrong service
  - Are we offering what they want?
  - Patron-Drive Acquisition is a very common theme among collection development librarians. Why buy books that have a 50% chance of NEVER being used (Academic problem) – Instead let the patrons decide
  - Buy just in time resources vs. just in case
Patron-Driven Services and the Power of Yes

- Patron-Driven Services (PDS) is the same model:
  - Being more open to what our community needs
  - Listening to what they are asking for
  - Not fearing success (which brings more people to the library)
  - Being viewed as a facilitator, not an obstacle
  - Seeking out the ‘high-class’ problem (vs. the ‘low-class’ one).

Corey Seeman (University of Michigan) - Where is the Hospitality in Your Library? Speaking of which, Where is Your Library? (UD Mercy - October 2017)

Low-Class Problem questions:
- How do we get people to the Reference Desk?
- How do we get people to check out books (that we select)?
- How do we get people to use electronic resources that we select?
- How do we get people into our classes & programs?

High-Class Problem questions:
- How do we build capacity to meet our patron needs?
- How do we get expand the space to fit all the people into our library?
- What services might we stop doing to meet the reference needs of our patrons (embedded librarianship)?
- How do we embrace technology as our patrons use it?
Patron-Driven Services and the Power of Yes

- Problem with “YES” can be that we lose ownership of the transaction
- HOWEVER, what we lose in ownership, we gain in creating an advocate
- With YES, we can create “Boosters and Ambassadors” for the library and the organization
  - Has love (not like) for the service
  - Has been able to get some unique service or interaction with the organization
  - Has had an amazing experience that is worth sharing
  - Has been told “Yes…we can do that”

Patron-Driven Services and the Power of Yes

- Managing Expectations
  - “No organization has become great or maintained greatness by managing expectations” – me (lots of times)
  - No organization has ever developed passionate users by managing expectations
  - This is the time when poor customer service is winning!

Patron-Driven Services and the Power of Yes

- Heed the lessons from Chase and Sanborn!
- An early market leader for home coffee, they instituted small changes to the product to reduce the cost.
- The collective effect of these cuts was destroying the quality of the coffee
- The Race to the Bottom!
Patron-Driven Services and the Power of Yes

- What book do we want to model?

Graphics by Kelly Burr, University of Michigan

Power of Yes at Kresge Library has enabled us to be the customer service champs at Ross
- Power of Yes has brought to us new projects and opportunities that we would not have gotten before
- People WANT to work with us – not have to
- And when the library morphed into a service unit – it kept us functioning!

Closing Thoughts

- What does hospitality mean at Kresge?
  ~ It means serving the students, faculty and other staff the best we can
  ~ It means listening to their needs without considering what other libraries are doing
  ~ It means not being bogged down with what other departments or libraries are doing
  ~ It also means that we cannot take on everything – right now, that is finding students places to study.
Closing Thoughts

- Factors beyond your control (especially space and budget) can easily thwart enthusiasm for providing service
- However, we can never be expected to do more than our budget and space allow – Focus on what you CAN do!

Sometimes we have as much control as sports fans

Corey Seeman (University of Michigan) - Where is the Hospitality in Your Library? Speaking at which: Where is Your Library? (UD Mercy - October 2017)

Closing Thoughts

- It means that no one will EVER get in trouble helping our community
- It means that the customer is always our first
  → “I am Third”
- It also means that we cannot do all things for all people
- “Do we provide a 4 star service when a 3 star service will do?” – Former dean at Ross School of Business

Corey Seeman (University of Michigan) - Where is the Hospitality in Your Library? Speaking at which: Where is Your Library? (UD Mercy - October 2017)

MBA Exit Survey

*Note: On a scale from 1 (poor) to 7 (excellent) – 2017 scale to 5 (and adjusted)

Exit Survey Responses from MBA Grads
- “Another gem at Ross. Whenever I have asked Kresge for help (in person or remotely through Meebo), I have never been disappointed. They helped me greatly during my internship.”
- “Best thing about Ross hands down.”
- “The librarians are amazingly responsive and supportive. I will miss them and their resources.”
- “Kresge library staff is awesome! They answer to the e-mails promptly even during the weekend and they are very helpful. The chat is also very useful.”
- “Kresge library staff rocks! One of the best things about Ross.”
- “We did poorly in the survey during construction – where did the library go???”

From MBA Student:
- During my summer, I was voluntarily working on a topic upon the request of my ex-supervisor from Turkey. I want to say that Kresge Librarians including Emily Schlaack, Danguole Kviklys, and Joel Scheuher continuously provided their support for my research and I am so thankful to each of them. Their e-mails were literally making my day and I felt the 100% support from Ross whenever I needed. We really appreciate your kind help and are very excited for any potential collaboration for GAPs as well.

From Ross Staffer:
- They are multiply the value of a set of great resources by being so helpful and such great ambassadors of those resources.

Be careful about Metrics & Dashboard indicators
- Numbers are used (especially in politics) as props!
- Numbers can mean so many different things
  - Batting average of .406 is amazing!
  - Winning percentage of .406 is not good – but maybe it is justified
  - Fielding percentage of .406 is really awful!
Closing Thoughts

Sometimes it does not matter what your dashboard shows....

Thank You
