

2012-01

North American Coordinating Council on Japanese Library Resources (NCC)
Cooperative Collection effort in Japanese Studies

Yokota-Carter, Keiko

<https://hdl.handle.net/2027.42/145737>

<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nd/4.0/>

```
graph TD; AAS[Association for Asian Studies (AAS)] --> CEAL[Council on East Asian Libraries (CEAL)]; CEAL --> CJKM[Chinese, Japanese & Korean Materials Committees]; NCC[North American Coordinating Council on Japanese Library Resources (NCC)];
```

Association for Asian Studies
(AAS)

North American Coordinating Council on Japanese Library
Resources (NCC)

Council on East Asian
Libraries (CEAL)

Chinese, Japanese & Korean
Materials Committees

Formation of NCC

Tanaka Ten schools:

Columbia,
Harvard,
Princeton,
Yale, University of Chicago, University of Michigan,
Stanford, University of California at Berkeley, University of Washington,
and University of Hawaii

1973: Prime Minister
Tanaka Endowment
(Tanaka Ten) from Japan Foundation

Duke, UCLA UCSD & OSU receive funding from Japan-U.S.
Friendship Commission (JUSFC)

1991: Hoover Meeting
including all schools

1991: NCC Formed
Funded by JUSFC & Japan Foundation
Librarians and Faculty promote access to Japan Studies library materials

