PRISON BIRTH PROJECT

TEAMS

FUNDRAISING & GRANT WRITING TEAM

- ➤ Talking to businesses and networking with the community
- ➤ Hosting and planning large-scale fundraising events (ex. solidarity dinner, gala, symposium)
- ➤ Learning to apply grant-writing skills to secure large grants
- ➤ Utilizing and securing campus resources to continuously build the organization and educate others

PR & MARKETING TEAM

- ➤ In charge of social media
- Getting PBP's name and brand into the community
- ➤ Networking with other student organizations
- Designing campaign flags
- ➤ Learning how to successfully implement various design and marketing strategies.
- Measuring results of campaigns and improving educational/marketing materials

COMMUNITY OUTREACH & ACTIVISM TEAM

- ➤ Raise community awareness by hosting more talks from prisoners' rights advocates
- ➤ Raise community activism by staying informed with reproductive, criminal, and restorative justice initiatives
- ➤ Engaging the campus community on prisoners' rights advocacy
- ➤ Learning how to pitch, story tell, and inspire others

DEVELOPMENT & RESEARCH TEAM

- ➤ Educating local communities about doula work and sensitivities surrounding healthcare for incarcerated individuals
- Creating new projects for PBP
- Developing new volunteer opportunities for women in institutionalized settings, such as jails and juvenile behavioral health centers
- ➤ Researching the conditions of mothers and maternal health in prison
- ➤ Measuring campus views surrounding prisoners' rights and perceptions of health care in prison

GOALS

STUDENT ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ➤ Understand the current state of incarceration in Michigan and the US and how we can make a difference
- ➤ Organize and plan a successful student-led campaign alongside MPDI, which will launch in December
- ➤ Plan a solidarity dinner for the end of winter semester
- Start a movement on campus that brings awareness to the topic by networking, holding events, and providing education to students
- ➤ Inspire and facilitate a national Call to Action to change the way pregnant women are treated in prison.

MEETING TIMES:

Weekly: Thursday, 6-7:30pm

If you can't make meetings work with your schedule this semester but you're very passionate and excited about this work, we still want you to have an opportunity to be involved.

If it works for your schedule next semester, but not this semester, we will have you join a team later.

One way to make sure you're staying engaged is through Slack!

On the PBP "Action" channel, directors and other org members will post engagement opportunities so you can be part of events and lend a hand!
