Climate Action Outreach Fellowship

Tansy Massey-Green and Jordyn Kreucher

Mission

Engage the University of Michigan in the fight against climate change.

We have observed that there is a disconnect between the work being done by campus groups and the rest of the UM community

People don't know what they can do to help

About Our Team

Lori Tschirhart: Assistant Director, STEM; Earth & Environmental Sciences Librarian, Environment & Sustainability Librarian

Jacob Glenn: The subject librarian for Physics and Astronomy

Jordyn Kreucher: Civil Engineering Class of 2021

Tansy Massey-Green: Ecology and Evolutionary Biology and Program in the Environment Class of 2019

Projects So Far

- The purpose of the swap was to keep clothes in circulation on campus instead of ending up in landfills
- Fast fashion is 2nd largest polluter in the world
- A fun way to practice sustainability
- Obtained $200 from Graham Institute Small Scale Grant to cover
- Gallery space in Hatcher
- Over 200 people attended!
- Leftovers to Ann Arbor PTO

Swap out those clothes you never wear for new-to-you ones or just come for FREE clothes!

FEBRUARY 1, 2019 12 - 4 PM
HATCHER LIBRARY GALLERY RM 100

Bring clean clothes and accessories you don't want anymore and take home anything you'd like.
