Agenda

- Introductions, agenda and outcomes (10 min.)
- Activity/Discussion: Your professional presence online (15 min.)
- Register your ORCID (15 min.)
- Claim your Google Scholar Profile (15 min.)
- Social media reflection (15 min.)
- Update your web page (15 min.)
- Wrap-up

Activity/Discussion: Your online scholarly identity

1. Open an incognito/private browsing session and search for your name.
  - a. What do you find?
  - b. What don't you find?
  - c. Any surprises?
  - d. What do you wish turned up? What do you wish didn't?
2. What value is there in being discoverable as a scholar on the web?
3. To whom/for whom might you want your scholarship be visible online?
4. Do you proactively engage in scholarly conversation on the web? Why or why not?

Register your ORCID: What is it?

DISTINGUISH YOURSELF IN THREE EASY STEPS

ORCID provides a persistent digital identifier that distinguishes you from every other researcher and, through integration in key research workflows such as manuscript and grant submission, supports automated linkages between you and your professional activities ensuring that your work is recognized. Find out more

1

REGISTER

Get your unique ORCID identifier Register now!
Registration takes 30 seconds.

2

ADD YOUR INFO

Enhance your ORCID record with your professional information and link to your other identifiers (such as Scopus or ResearcherID or LinkedIn).

3

USE YOUR ORCID ID

Include your ORCID identifier on your Webpage, when you submit publications, apply for grants, and in any research workflow to ensure you get credit for your work.

Register your ORCID: Why?

- ORCID is increasingly requested by publishers, funding agencies, and others that want to ensure that all of your publications, funding, and other forms of scholarly work are accurately associated with you.
- If you are a graduate student at the University of Michigan, you must register an ORCID in order to submit your dissertation--getting it done now means you don't have to worry about it later!
- In this video, U-M faculty and researchers talk about how ORCID is useful for them.

Register your ORCID: How?

1. Follow this link (<https://bit.ly/2Hn7hZS>) to the U-M Research Identifier Management System and click on the “Create or Connect your ORCID iD” button.
2. This will take you to the ORCID website sign-in page. Select “Institutional Account.”

Register your ORCID: How?

3. You'll see a message from U-M, which summarizes the information U-M will be providing to ORCID on your behalf. Click 'Confirm.'

4. Next, you'll see a page from ORCID acknowledging that you're logged into the ORCID website with your U-M credentials and inviting to continue connecting. Click "Register for an ORCID id."

The screenshot shows the 'Information Release' page from the University of Michigan's WebLogin system. The page title is 'Information Release'. Below the title, there is a section titled 'Additional information about the service' which describes the ORCID service and its purpose. A table titled 'Information to be Provided to Service' lists various fields and their corresponding values, including 'Full Name', 'University Affiliation (required)', 'E-mail', 'First Name', and 'Last Name'. Below the table, there is a section titled 'Data privacy information of the service' which contains a consent form. The consent form asks the user to agree to release their information to the service every time they access it. There are two radio buttons: 'Ask me again at next login' (selected) and 'I agree to send my information this time'. Below the radio buttons, there is a checkbox labeled 'Ask me again if information to be provided to this service changes'. At the bottom of the consent form, there are two buttons: 'Decline' and 'Confirm'.

The screenshot shows the ORCID website's 'Link your University of Michigan account to your ORCID record' page. The page header includes the ORCID logo and navigation links for 'FOR RESEARCHERS', 'FOR ORGANIZATIONS', 'ABOUT', 'HELP', and 'SIGN IN'. The main content area features a heading 'Link your University of Michigan account to your ORCID record' and a sub-heading 'You are signed into University of Michigan as [redacted]'. Below this, there is a section titled 'To finish linking this University of Michigan account to ORCID, sign into your ORCID ID below.' followed by a paragraph explaining the next steps. At the bottom of the page, there is a form with fields for 'Email or ORCID ID' and 'ORCID password', a 'Sign into ORCID' button, and a link for 'Forgotten your password? Reset it here'.

Claim your Google Scholar profile

1. Go to scholar.google.com and (if you are not already logged in) click “sign in” in the upper right corner. Sign in using your UMICH credentials.
2. Click on “my profile” in the upper left hand corner to get started. Later, check your email for the verification from Google Scholar and complete the verification process.

A screenshot of the Google Scholar profile verification form. On the left, there is a sidebar with three tabs: "Profile" (selected and numbered 1), "Articles" (numbered 2), and "Settings" (numbered 3). The main content area is titled "Track citations to your articles. Appear in Scholar." and shows the email "rwelzenbach@gmail.com" with a "Switch account" link. Below this are several form fields: "Name" (filled with "Rebecca Welzenbach"), "Affiliation" (with a placeholder "E.g., Professor of Physics, Princeton University"), "Email for verification" (with a placeholder "E.g., einstein@princeton.edu"), "Areas of interest" (with a placeholder "E.g., general relativity, unified field theory"), and "Homepage (optional)" (with a placeholder "E.g., http://www.princeton.edu/~einstein"). A blue "Next" button is located at the bottom of the form.

Claim your Google Scholar Profile: How?

3. Review publications: are they yours?
4. Decide: automatically add publications to your profile?
5. Decide: make your profile public?
6. Click “follow” in the upper right hand corner of the screen to receive notifications of new publications and citations.

Social media reflection

1. Refer to this worksheet: <https://bit.ly/2FPHnLV> (handouts available)
2. Take ~10 minutes to start on the worksheet and reflect a bit on the questions.
3. Discussion

Pulling together the pieces: update your U-M profile page(s)

Check to ensure that your web page includes:

- Your ORCID number and link to your ORCID profile
- Link to your Google Scholar profile
- Links to any publicly visible social media platforms or feeds that you have decided you want your academic and professional colleagues to find and use

This is a good time to ensure all other details on your page are accurate and up-to-date!
