

ORIGINAL ARTICLE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

This form must be submitted with your manuscript before it will enter the review process. Answer 'none' if such is the case. If accepted for publication, a PDF of this document will be posted online with your article. Additionally, include any necessary funding information and acknowledgements you wish to see in print in your manuscript document file.

Manuscript Title	The Endowment Effect and the Trading of Draft Picks in Major U.S. Professional Sports
Submitted To	<input type="checkbox"/> Contemporary Economic Policy <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Economic Inquiry

Each author must disclose if another party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

No.

Each author must disclose any paid or unpaid positions that they hold (or any close relative or partner holds) as officer, director, or board member of relevant non-profit organizations, or profit-making entities. A relevant organization is one whose policy positions, goals, or financial interests relate to the article.

No.

Identify each interested party from whom you (or any close relative or partner) have received financial support of at least $10,000 in the past three years, in the form of consultant fees, retainers, grants, and the like (including in-kind support, such as providing access to data). If the support in question comes with a non-disclosure obligation, that fact should be stated, along with as much information as the obligation permits. An "interested" party is any individual, group, or organization that has a financial ideological, or political stake related to the article.

No.

For any paper involving the collection of data on human subjects the author(s) must disclose whether they have obtained Institutional Review Board (IRB) approval; if no IRB approval was obtained, the reason should be stated.

No; not necessary (no human subjects).

Signature: Jeffrey Hobbs Date: 6/23/2021
Name (printed): Jeffrey Hobbs

ORIGINAL ARTICLE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

This form must be submitted with your manuscript before it will enter the review process. Answer 'none' if such is the case. If accepted for publication, a PDF of this document will be posted online with your article. Additionally, include any necessary funding information and acknowledgements you wish to see in print in your manuscript document file.

Manuscript Title	The Endowment Effect and the Trading of Draft Picks in Major U.S. Professional Sports
Submitted To	<input type="checkbox"/> Contemporary Economic Policy <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Economic Inquiry

Each author must disclose if another party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

NO

Each author must disclose any paid or unpaid positions that they hold (or any close relative or partner holds) as officer, director, or board member of relevant non-profit organizations, or profit-making entities. A relevant organization is one whose policy positions, goals, or financial interests relate to the article.

no

Identify each interested party from whom you (or any close relative or partner) have received financial support of at least $10,000 in the past three years, in the form of consultant fees, retainers, grants, and the like (including in-kind support, such as providing access to data). If the support in question comes with a non-disclosure obligation, that fact should be stated, along with as much information as the obligation permits. An "interested" party is any individual, group, or organization that has a financial ideological, or political stake related to the article.

no

For any paper involving the collection of data on human subjects the author(s) must disclose whether they have obtained Institutional Review Board (IRB) approval; if no IRB approval was obtained, the reason should be stated.

no

Signature: Vivek Singh Date: 6/23/2021
Name (printed): VIVEK SINGH