

AUTHOR'S REPLY

There does not seem to be major differences between Professor Raman's and Mrs Chandokar's observations for Tansa Lake, particularly between Stas 1 and 5, and our observations for Ford Lake. Their Sta. 6 values near the water intake and dam appear to be influenced during wet periods by nonpoint pollution involving septic tanks and cattle wading. Additional information on Tansa Lake would be necessary for further critical comparisons.

*Department of Environmental and Industrial Health
The University of Michigan
Ann Arbor
MI 48109, U.S.A.*

JOHN J. GANNON