THANK YOU! THANK YOU!

As you will see from the charts and graphs elsewhere in this issue, in 1985 you put the Fund over the top in every way:

More total dollars	$1,685,910.34
More dollars from alumni	1,247,304.78
More gifts	8,216
More total donors	7,245
More alumni donors	6,432
Highest percent of alumni participation	44.3%

These are exciting numbers, and they will be a wonderful base on which to build in 1986. With your help we'll do it.

AU REVOIR

These results for 1985 would bring a smile—actually a big grin—to my face under any circumstance, but since this will be my last "...Between the Sheets," I am especially pleased to report this record breaking performance. I know that even these marks will soon be surpassed, but "what a way to go!"

Since Law Quadrangle Notes previously has commented on my August retirement this revelation will be no surprise to most of you. Of course, I have known of this change in my life for an even longer time, but I am sure there will be some surprises for me, and possibly a disappointment or two. There will surely be some gaps in my time schedule. But there is one fact on which I can rely—I shall have a vast store of marvelous memories.

Few people have had the opportunity to sample more of the rich fare available to a professor at Michigan than I. During my 30 years I have worked under six quite different but equally inspiring deans, and served as assistant or associate dean with four of them. I have enjoyed the companionship of more than 85 colleagues on the tenured faculty, and of at least that many more who had shorter appointments. My several administrative positions have exposed me to nearly all of the myriad problems of managing the Law School, and to a lesser extent the problems of the larger University. As teacher and as administrator I was privileged to know thousands of you as students, and these experiences alone would have constituted a rewarding career. Working with the Bar through continuing legal education and on a number of committees kept me, I hope, from staying too long in the ivory tower.

But there is more. You, the alumni and alumnae of the Law School, have been a marvelous group to work for and with. I value you as my friends. Your many accomplishments are a constant source of pride to me. You have demonstrated your concern for the School and your loyalty to it in many ways. But none has been more striking than your strong response to the Law School's capital campaign in the 1970's, and your outstanding support of the Law School Fund for the past 25 years. I am glad that we could share these experiences.

One of my happiest thoughts is that much of this will not change. I trust our friendships will continue. My lovely wife and I expect to keep Ann Arbor as our home base, with excursions here and there. True, the flow of letters, announcements, requests and miscellaneous communications from me will shrink, but the habit of keeping in touch is too strong to vanish. I shall look forward to our next exchange.

Au revoir.

CAMPAIGN FOR MICHIGAN—PHASE II

This phase will, to some extent, affect our Law School Fund campaigns for the next two years—1986 and 1987. To simplify my explanation I shall repeat with just a little bit of history.

A year ago, in this column, I alerted you to the fact the Law School was, at the same time, involved in two different fund raising activities. One was (and is) the Campaign for Michigan, a major all-University undertaking including some special needs of the Law School. The second, our annual Law School Fund which still has as its goal providing the extras of excellence to assure that

C A M P A I G N S U M M A R Y

Simon M. Lorne, Los Angeles, California; Professor Michael Rosenzweig, Law School; Professor Michael Bradley, School of Business Administration, panelists for LARLF '86 program on "Hostile Takeover Bids: The Urge to Resist."

Michigan keeps its place as one of the world leaders in legal education. I hoped to persuade you that the success of each is important to the "good health" of the School, and we urged your generous support of both when the appeals are made.

The first phase of the Campaign for Michigan concentrated on securing commitments from individuals, corporations and foundations who were able to make contributions of at least $100,000. Phase I began even before the 1983 kickoff and will continue throughout the campaign.

This past year saw the beginning of a second phase of the Campaign for Michigan, the "special gift" effort, which will significantly broaden the scope of that campaign. In this phase the University is reaching out to special alumni and friends, inviting Campaign for Michigan commitments in the range of $10,000 to $100,000. Phases I and II will both continue throughout the balance of the campaign.

Phase III, the final part of the Campaign for Michigan, will be an all-alumni appeal integrated with the annual fund programs now in place in the schools and colleges. For Law School alumni, that will, of course, mean joining our appeal for the Campaign for Michigan with the annual campaign for the Law School Fund for 1986 and 1987.

This will permit each alumnus or alumna, regardless of his or her ability to make a commitment of $10,000 or more, the satisfaction of being a part of this important University undertaking. We expect that most Law School alumni responding to this appeal, who direct their gifts to the Law School, will make their gifts for essentially the same purposes that they have in the past—i.e., most will be "undesignated," except that the use is limited to the Law School, and some will be for a particular scholarship or loan fund, for the use of the law library, etc. But some of you may wish to recognize the dual purpose of this appeal—for the Campaign for Michigan and the Law School Fund—by stipulating that a part of your gift be used for a normal Fund purpose (providing the extras of excellence as the Fund has always done) and a part be for one of the stated needs of the Law School within the framework of the Campaign, such as an addition to the School's general endowment fund, or the endowment for the library. We shall be able to accommodate your wishes.

What we do hope is that in 1986 and 1987, as you consider your contribution, you will keep in mind that these are two campaigns, and two groups of needs, and that your gift should reflect this fact. Please give as generously as you can. If you have never given to the Law School, or to the University, we hope you will find the dual purpose of this phase of the campaigns a reason to make your first gift. We do need your help.

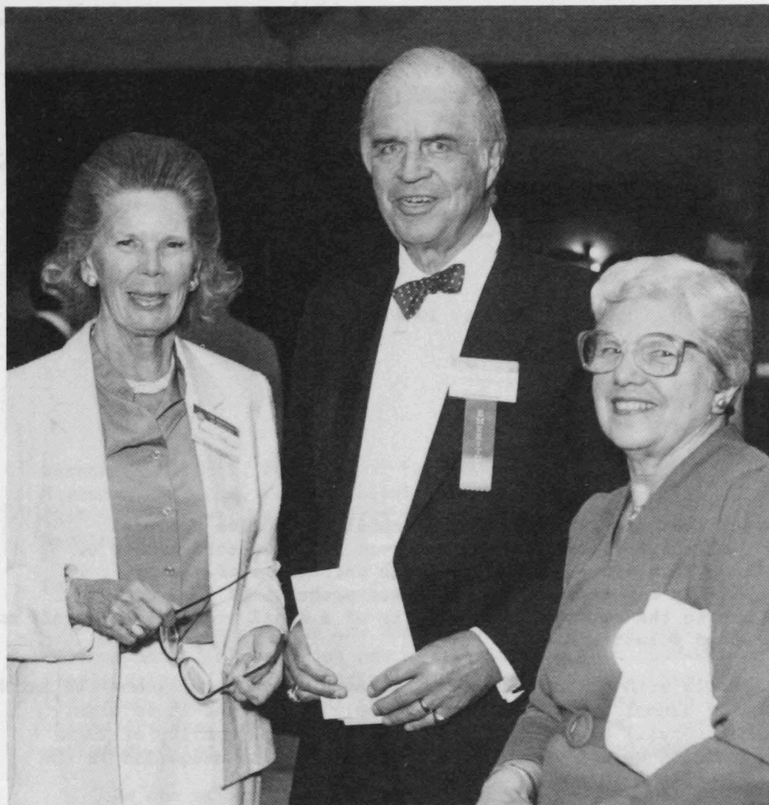

Of course, if you have been or are asked to consider a major or special gift to the Campaign for Michigan, we hope you will do just that, as well as continuing your support for the Fund.

At the time of writing (mid-spring) many details of Phase III are not settled, but there is one thing to tell you. Because the whole University is involved, and particularly because many of you (about 30%) have degrees from more than one school or college within the University, you may receive letters or a call from some non-law person (outside of our usual requests) seeking your support for the Campaign. In every case the person contacting you should know of your affiliation, dual or otherwise, and you will be given a chance to direct your gift as you wish, to one school or college, or to more than one, or to the "University" in a more general way if that is your choice.

Please write or telephone (313/764-0518) the Law School Fund office if you have questions.

Dean Terrance Sandalow

Dear Terry:

I am pleased to report that the 1985 Annual Law School Fund drive produced a record $1,685,910, of which $1,247,000 was received from a record number of alumni givers: 6,432. This was also a record high percentage of alumni contributing at 44.3%. By any measure, the unbroken progress of the Fund is continuing nicely, due to the extraordinary efforts of a small professional staff and a large group of devoted volunteers.

Only a handful of schools with a long head start in annual giving programs can match us in the proportion of alumni supporting their schools. Now that it is widely recognized that The University of Michigan is unequalled in the quality of legal education, it is hoped that we can soon report that we are also unequalled in the percentage of alumni involved in annual giving to the Law School.

As you know, the one person most responsible for bringing the Fund this far, Roy Proffitt, is turning over the direction and management of the Fund. Since he assumed the Directorship of the Fund in 1964, the number of alumni contributing has nearly tripled, the percentage contributing has risen from 31% to 44%, and the total dollars have increased eleven fold.

This giant contribution to the Law School may be exceeded only by his contributions as a professor, and friend of us all: students, alumni and colleagues. Roy has left a wonderful imprint on the Fund and on the School; his place will not be easily filled.

If it can be done, his successor, Jonathan Lowe, seems a most likely candidate. While Roy will take his lovely wife Jean with him, he is fortunately leaving a dedicated and diligent Law School Fund staff with us. It will not be easy but with Jonathan and the Fund staff aboard, Roy's very large shoes will be adequately filled. I congratulate you on finding Jonathan.

I am proud to have presided over the fine results produced by the extraordinary efforts of this impressive team which was largely put into place by my successors: Dick May and Richard Odgers, et al. I know that I speak for the regional and local chairmen and all the other volunteers of the Fund in reporting that we see no reason why the Fund should not continue to furnish an increasing margin of excellence for The University of Michigan Law School in the years ahead.

Sincerely,

Warren Elliott

Nossaman, Guthner, Knox & Elliott

Washington, D.C. 20036-6699

Dear Warren:

The success of the Law School Fund during the past year is exceptionally welcome news. Those of us now at the School, both students and faculty, are deeply grateful to the nearly 6,500 alumni and more than 800 other friends of the School who contributed so generously during the 1985 campaign. Special thanks are due the many hundreds of volunteers who, under your leadership, worked so effectively to achieve yet another record-breaking year.

As one of Roy Proffitt's warmest admirers, I especially appreciate your kind -- and fully deserved -- recognition of his many contributions to the Law School during his three decades as a member of the faculty. Roy has been so closely identified with the Fund for so long that his retirement is inevitably a source of concern to all of us who understand the Fund's importance to the School. As Roy would be the first to insist, however, the Fund's extraordinary success is not the work of any one person. It is attributable to the thousands of alumni who are committed to fostering excellence in legal education and to assuring that no person will be denied a legal education at Michigan because of his or her economic circumstances. The depth of that commitment buoys our hopes for the future.

Once again, our warm thanks to you, to the volunteers who worked with you, and to all who contributed so generously to the Fund during the past year.

Sincerely,

Terrance Sandalow
Dean

Matching Gifts

Do you work for a company or a law firm that has a matching gift program? If you do, your gift to the Law School Fund can usually be matched dollar-for-dollar by your company. All you need to do is obtain a matching gift form from your employer, fill it out, and send it to us with your donation to the Law School Fund. It will be processed here, returned to your employer, and your gift will become doubly valuable.

During the 1985 Law School Fund campaign matching gifts were received from the following:
