An Impressive Year!

Jonathan D. Lowe
Director of the Law School Fund

The 28th year of the Law School Fund was an impressive success. I extend my warm thanks to all alumni and friends who generously supported the Law School in 1988. This tremendous loyalty enables the Law School to remain one of the country's pre-eminent legal institutions. Your support provides financial aid and services to students, helps attract and retain a strong faculty, maintains the outstanding library collection, and helps maintain and improve the School's wonderful Hutchins Hall and Law Quadrangle facilities. On behalf of the students and the faculty I want to thank sincerely and to salute publicly the more than 6,500 Fund contributors who recognize the importance of an annual gift to the Law School Fund.

I want to extend special thanks to outgoing National Chair J. Kay Felt, JD '67, for her leadership in obtaining this year's record results and for her efforts on behalf of the School over the past two years. Succeeding her as National Chair for 1989-1991 is Indianapolis lawyer Murray Feiwell, JD '63. Joining him in the Fund leadership are Frederick Lambert, JD '69 of Los Angeles, as National Vice-Chair and Patricia Curtner, JD '78 of Chicago, as National Class Vice-Chair. We value their commitment to the Law School Fund and we wish them great success in their new endeavors.

In 1988, as in previous years, the persistent and dramatic decline in state support to the University and to the Law School further strained our limited financial aid resources, faculty research endowment, and library funds. Tuition rates suffered another double digit increase this past year, resulting in record financial aid requests. To meet these needs alumni and private support of the Law School Fund must continue to grow significantly. Even taking into account the enviable results of the 1988 campaign, the increase in next year's campaign must be substantially greater to compensate for receding state support. Thus your private gifts play a pivotal role in securing the distinction of the University of Michigan Law School.

The Law School faces unprecedented challenges in 1989, attempting to meet the needs of students and faculty while struggling with dramatic cutbacks in state funding. With your steadfast support of the Law School Fund we can meet these challenges and strengthen our educational programs. I thank all of you, on behalf of the entire Law School community, for your enduring loyalty and generosity.

Wade H. McCree, Jr. Professorship

A current project about which we are especially enthusiastic is the establishment of the Wade H. McCree, Jr. Professorship, in honor of our late colleague and friend. Gifts in support of this professorship have been promising, but we are still in need of funds to fully endow this chair. This historic professorship will be the first of its kind named after a Black person at the University of Michigan and at any of the top law schools in the country. As such, it is a source of pride to the entire Law School community. We hope you will support the establishment of this unique and fitting tribute to our esteemed former faculty member and former U.S. Solicitor General Wade H. McCree, Jr.

Message from the National Chair to the Dean

J. Kay Felt, National Chair, 1987-1988

I am pleased to report that the 1988 Annual Law School Fund produced $1,928,634.26, the largest total amount received in the Fund's 28-year history. There is much to report that is very good this year, including the fact that the $1,529,987.41 received from alumni exceeded last year's level of alumni contributions by nearly $115,000.00, and that the average total contribution per alumnus increased by more than $20.00 over last year.

There are some sobering aspects to this year's results, however, not the least of which are that the total number of alumni donors decreased from 6503 in 1987 to 6428, and that the percentage of alumni contributing decreased from a record high 45% in 1987 to 43.3%, putting the Fund back at 1984 percentage levels.

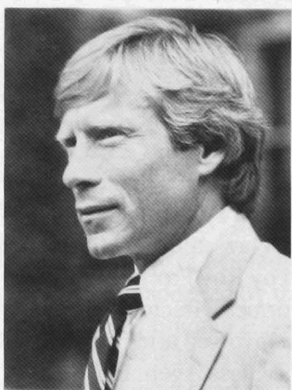

The fact is, however, that compared to other law schools, and in light of a national downward trend in giving, these results are gratifying. Michigan alumni hold their school in high esteem and recognize that the Fund has contributed that margin of excellence that keeps Michigan at the forefront of legal education. Only a handful of schools with a long head start in annual giving programs can match these results.

The Fund's progress in this difficult year was due in large part to the extraordinary efforts of Jonathan Lowe, his skillful staff and a large group of dedicated volunteers. It is now time to pass the torch to Murray Feiwell and the able team led by Fred Lambert and Patricia Curtner. Their enthusiasm and dedication bode well for extraordinary success.

In leaving this post, this year's volunteers and I want most of all to extend our thanks to Dean Bollinger and his predecessors as Dean who have made our school almost without peer in the quality of legal education. We thank you and the outstanding faculty and pledge our support in the coming years.

Dean's Message

Lee Bollinger, Dean

The Law School is extremely grateful to the alumni who contributed to the Law School Fund this year. We are equally thankful to the many alumni who volunteered their time to the Fund drive, and to Kay Felt who for the past two years has served most admirably as the Chair of the National Committee. I am sure that Kay's spirited leadership made a significant difference in the success of the Fund.

I want to take this opportunity, however, which is usually spent in giving thanks for the past, to express my sense of the growing importance of private giving to the future of the Law School. This is not the time or place to provide detailed financial statements and projections for the School, but I do want to convey to you the fact that the Law School's budget is facing steadily increasing pressures. I want us now, before those pressures become debilitating, to view the situation as urgent. It is a simple fact of life that state support to the University is declining. As a consequence the Law School's tuition has risen dramatically in recent years—more rapidly than at any of our peer schools and now nearly the equal of the most expensive—and the School's operating expenses are growing at a fast pace.

Over the past two years, I have met with many of you, individually and in groups, to begin to convey this message in more detail. I will of course continue to do that.

The purpose of this letter is to convey the fundamental idea—an idea to which I find myself more deeply committed by the day—that it is imperative that we begin to think about the Law School, in financial terms, as a private institution. That means we must recognize, as all private schools long have, that the Law School's greatness is dependent upon the Law School Fund and the School's endowment. Both of these are dependent upon the private financial generosity of our alumni. Private contributions, in short, are no longer simply the margin of difference but essential to the basic well-being of the institution.

Again, I thank those who have served and contributed to the Law School Fund this past year. I look forward to increasing the Law School Fund in the upcoming year and to building the Law School's endowment for the future.

Alumni Succeed with Leadership Gifts

In December, 1988 the Law School Fund inaugurated its Leadership Annual Giving program to foster individual gifts of $1,000 or more. Alumni pledging gifts at this level or above represent the giving leadership of our annual fund. Washington D.C. was the pilot city for this innovative program which turned to six key alumni to solicit colleagues on behalf of the Law School. John Nannes, JD '73, was the local coordinator of the program which contacted over sixty D.C. area alumni. John also hosted, with his wife Carole, a recognition dinner at his home for the volunteers and many of the thirty-one leadership donors. Dean Lee Bollinger was the special guest at this small gathering. We sincerely appreciate John's efforts which made this initial program a remarkable success.

The volunteer solicitors, who themselves set an example by making their own "leadership" gifts, included:

Warren Elliott '52
Stuart Feldstein '63
J. Alan Galbraith '66
Shirley Johnson '65
Jerome Libin '59
John Nannes '73

Response to the program was tremendous, with gifts of $1,000 or more increasing from 19 in 1987 to 31 in 1988. We are grateful to the following alumni for their exemplary support of this inaugural program:

Dennis Bedell '64
Alexander Bennett '64
Edward Bransilver '59
Ralph Dwan '57
Michael Flyer '62
Robert Freedman '64
Leslie Goldman '70
Sally Katzen '67
James Maiwurm '74
George Meader '31
Lawrence Meyer '64

David Miller '67
James Murphy '69
Terence Murphy '66
Garo Partoyan '62
Stark Ritchie '41
James Rogers '69
George Ruttinger '73
Frederick Schafrick '73
Joel Simon '60
Willis Snell '51
Stefan Tucker '63
John Villa '73
N. Frank Wiggins '72
John Worthington '55

In next year's Annual Report we will list all alumni who give a leadership gift to the Fund. Your name can be included in this select group if your gift to the upcoming 1989 Law School Fund Campaign is $1,000 or more.

We are eager to implement similar annual gift campaigns in major metropolitan areas across the country. If you are interested in conducting a Leadership Annual Giving program in your area please contact Mary June Talen at the Law School Fund, 721 S. State Street, Ann Arbor, MI 48104-3071 or call 313-998-7965.

The Value of Volunteers

The success of the Law School Fund depends upon our loyal and enthusiastic volunteers. In large cities or small towns, big firms or private practices, over 400 regional chairpersons, area solicitors and class agents find time in their hectic schedules to send letters, to make phone calls, and to communicate to their fellow alumni the importance of a generous gift to the Law School. Their efforts are crucial to the Fund's achievements and to our enviably high percentage of alumni participation.

Claude Pearson, '48, is a fine example of our dedicated alumni. Mr. Pearson has been involved with the Law School Fund for many years, presently serving as Region VIII Chair (northwestern U.S. and Alaska). Since volunteering for service in World War II, Mr. Pearson has believed strongly in the "powerful force" of volunteerism. Doing his part to ensure the success of the Fund and sharing in that success motivate his involvement with the Law School. Mr. Pearson believes that assisting today's generation of students in their legal education is "the most satisfying of all my volunteer activities."

Mark Stichel, '83, represents a younger generation of Law School volunteers. Running the Student Funded Fellowship campaign while a law student, Mr. Stichel was encouraged by Roy Proffitt, Professor Emeritus and Former Director of the Fund, to remain involved after graduation by serving as the Class Agent for '83. Mr. Stichel agreed, citing that the Law School needs many things to be a success, and "money is one of them". Mr. Stichel says that asking people for money "doesn't come naturally" but remembering the benefits of a Michigan legal education makes the solicitation less difficult, and personally satisfying.

Mr. Pearson and Mr. Stichel are but two examples of the vast and extraordinary network of volunteers who procure funds to secure the academic excellence of this Law School. The continued success of the Law School Fund is critical to the overall well-being of this institution. Our volunteers are at the heart of that success and once again we salute them and look forward to their 1989 achievements!

If you would like to volunteer some of your time on behalf of the Law School, please write the Law School Fund at 721 S. State St.; Ann Arbor, MI 48104-3071.

Emmett E. Eagan: Early Leader of Law School Fund

The University of Michigan Law School was deeply saddened by the recent loss of our alumnus Emmett E. Eagan. Emmett died on March 14, 1989, at the age of 78, after suffering a heart attack shortly after leaving work. Many of you will remember Emmett not only as a respected attorney but as a dedicated Law School Fund volunteer who was the National Chair of the Fund in 1965 and 1966. Emmett helped lay the groundwork for what remains a successful fundraising program after twenty-eight years. His leadership during the early years of the Fund, and his consistent support of the Law School, set an example of loyalty and hard work which is difficult to surpass.

Emmett received his undergraduate degree in literature and law from the University of Michigan in 1931. He graduated from the Law School in 1934 with membership in the Order of the Coif and the Law Review. Emmett joined Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone the year he graduated and remained there his entire life, serving as a corporate lawyer and more recently as a consulting partner. He was active on several boards of trustees including the Herrick Foundation, the Sage Foundation, Bon Secours Hospital, and the Morrison Foundation. In 1967 the University of Michigan awarded him its prestigious Sesquicentennial Award for "knowledge, wisdom and the courage to serve", a fitting honor for a memorable alumnus.

In 1966 Emmett was instrumental in the establishment of the Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone Scholarship Fund and in 1979 the firm honored him by establishing the Emmett E. Eagan Award for an outstanding student of corporate law.

Emmett was a diligent and thorough lawyer who enjoyed his profession immensely. He worked six days a week even up until the last years of his life. He also remained active as an avid tennis player. We are proud to have been able to name him among our alumni and we shall miss him.

Partners in Leadership: A University-Wide Effort

The Law School recently joined other schools and colleges of the University taking part in the "Partners in Leadership" program. This is a new University-wide annual giving effort to secure and to recognize annual gifts of $1,000 or more from alumni and friends of the Law School, and other University schools and colleges, by using peer solicitations and other specialized appeals.

The program is being tested in two metropolitan areas, Grand Rapids and northern Detroit, in the fall of 1989. Volunteers have been recruited to represent the Law School in this important initiative. Those donors who become "Partners" with their gift of $1,000 or more will receive special public recognition and will be invited to President's Weekends and other acknowledgement events in Ann Arbor and nationwide.

Participants in the Law School's Partners in Leadership program play a fundamental role in ensuring that the Law School fulfills its academic promise. Your annual gift of $1,000 or more preserves the high quality of a Michigan legal education for today's students, and enables us to strengthen our library and academic programs this year and in the years ahead.

Please Note

The Law School Fund has a new phone number: (313) 998-7970. Also, if you have not yet made a note of it, our address is now 721 South State Street, Ann Arbor, MI 48104-3071. In October, 1988, we moved from Hutchins Hall directly across the street to the big white house adjacent to the Monroe street parking lot. Please stop by to visit when you are next in Ann Arbor!

Alumni Activities

1988 was an outstanding year for alumni activities. More events than ever before, in more different locales, attracted a record number of alumni, spouses and friends as participants. In addition the Law School embarked upon a strategic effort to reinvigorate our foreign alumni network by expanding our international programming. This past year saw events in London, Taipei, Toronto, Zurich and Florence. Details of the recent event in Florence, Italy will be highlighted in the next issue of Law Quadrangle Notes.

In addition to the class reunions which are held in Ann Arbor, we had breakfasts, lunches, dinners and receptions in nineteen states and five foreign countries. Gatherings were held at seven state bar conventions plus the ABA convention. The total participation at these events was over two thousand alumni and guests. If you are interested in exploring the possibilities of a University of Michigan Law School alumni event in your location, please contact Clare Bouton Hansen in the Alumni Activities Department of the Law School at (313) 998-7973.

Average Alumni Gift: How does Michigan compare?

In a ranking of ten leading law schools Michigan finished second to last in the size of average alumni gift for the last fiscal year. All but one of ten peer institutions surpassed us in this comparison of average dollars given annually by each alumni. While the percentage of our alumni who support the Law School Fund is impressive, the dollar amount of the average alumni gift is disconcerting.

Imagine the increase in support for the Law School if everyone increased their annual gift by just $50. At a 45% participation rate that would mean approximately $325,000 in additional funds for student financial aid, faculty support, and library costs. We are fortunate to have the widespread support and generosity of our alumni—now we are asking you to expand that support, to any extent that you can.

The competition is exceeding us. Help Michigan be a leader not only in educational excellence but in the support it inspires in its alumni. Any increase in your 1989 gift over your previous gift can make the difference.

The Benefits of Planned Giving: Clyne Bequest Supports Professorship

“Until the day he died my uncle was always helping some young man into the field of law. To know that he can still help the University is a thrilling thing for me.”
 —Mary Clyne Connell, great niece of Charles and Edith Clyne

Eighty-four years after her husband graduated from the University of Michigan Law School and twenty-one years after his death, Edith J. Clyne, B.A. '29 and widow of Charles F. Clyne, J.D. '02, gave $500,000 to the Law School to establish the Charles F. and Edith J. Clyne Professorship of Law. With this gift the Clynes joined the growing number of alumni making charitable gifts upon their death through a bequest or will. Gifts of this kind, usually referred to as “planned” or “deferred” gifts, benefit grantee and grantor alike, allowing alumni to make a substantial gift upon their death which perpetually joins their name to the Law School and at the same time to save a considerable amount on estate tax.

The Clyne bequest is especially notable for its bolstering of faculty support. By securing the teaching, scholarship and research of a faculty member, this gift helps meet the markedly increased need for significant faculty support. A. W. Brian Simpson was the first Law School faculty member to benefit from the Clyne's gift, becoming the Charles F. and Edith J. Clyne Professor of Law in 1988. Professor Simpson holds an M.A. and J.D. from Oxford University, and works extensively in the field of common law.

This gift is the culmination of the Clynes' lifelong involvement with the Law School. After graduating, Mr. Clyne returned to the Law School over the course of fifty years for seven reunions of his Law School class of 1902. His legal career was illustrious and varied, serving as the city attorney of Aurora, IL., as a member of the Illinois legislature and as the U.S. District attorney for Northern Illinois. He worked in banking from 1943 until his death in 1965.

Edith Jewell married Charles Clyne when she was forty-seven and he was sixty-five. Originally from Loomis, Michigan, Edith graduated from the University of Michigan with an A.B. in 1929. Although not a law graduate herself, she shared her husband's enthusiastic support of the Law School. Helping young generations of lawyers was a priority and a pleasure for both of them.

With their gift, the Clynes realized both the lasting importance and the tax benefits of a donation through a trust or bequest. Many alumni think it a heartening prospect to associate their name with the Law School and to ensure their support of the School far into the future.

Planned giving is also an attractive option for investment decisions. It is possible to make a lifetime gift which will support the School, maintain or increase income for yourself or a loved one, derive substantial income tax benefits, and ease the financial burdens of the Law School.

These deferred gifts can take many forms, including contributions to the University's donor pooled income fund, outright gifts by will, charitable unitrusts or annuity trusts, revocable living trusts, charitable lead trusts, and gifts of real property.

Donor societies enable the Law School to recognize publicly its most beneficent alumni and friends. These lists reflect the exceptional patronage of a select group of our alumni to whom the Law School is especially grateful.

The James B. Angell Society

A very special group indeed! The Angell Society honors those alumni and friends of the Law School who have given or pledged the University $1 million or have made a commitment of $1.5 million as a deferred gift. In each case all or a major portion of the gift was designated for the benefit of the Law School. Those people honored include:

Mr. & Mrs. Terrence A. Elkes
Mr. & Mrs. Norman Freehling

Members in Memoriam

William W. Cook
Clyde A. DeWitt

Frederick L. Leckie
James B. Nelson
Joseph H. Parsons
Crapo C. Smith
Robert A. Sullivan

The Ruthven Society

The newest of the University's recognition levels, the Alexander G. Ruthven Society honors donors who have achieved a cumulative record of outright gifts totaling $500,000 or more or a $750,000 deferred gift to University programs. A number of Law School alumni and friends have attained membership in this new society:

The Harry B. Hutchins Society

First designated as Michigan Benefactors in 1974, the Hutchins Society recognizes donors who have supported the University with outright gifts or pledges totaling $100,000 or more, or with a deferred gift of at least $150,000. Many alumni and friends of the Law School are honored in this society:

The Presidents Club

The University of Michigan Presidents Club is one of the most respected organizations of its type in the country. No other public university, and few, if any, private universities or colleges have the allegiance and backing of such a large number of people who support their institution in one of the most effective ways—with dollars.

The Presidents Club has been enthusiastically supported by many Law School alumni and a list of the Law members through February 28, 1989 follows:

This designation recognizes individuals who make an annual gift of $500 or more to a particular school or college within the University.

In our list below, we have included Law School alumni and friends of the School who have made such gifts to the Law School (including gifts for the Capital Campaign as well as for the Law School Fund). In order to make this list correspond to our fiscal year for the Law School Fund and this report, (March 1 to February 28), we include here only those who qualified between March 1, 1988 and February 28, 1989.

Matching Gifts

Do you work for a company or a law firm that has a matching gift program? If you do, your gift to the Law School Fund can usually be matched dollar-for-dollar by your company. All you need to do is obtain a matching gift form from your employer, fill it out, and send it to us with your donation to the Law School Fund. It will be processed here, returned to your employer, and your gift will become doubly valuable.

During the 1988 Law School Fund campaign matching gifts were received from the following:
