A Message from the National Chair to the Dean

Dear Lee,

There is great news to report to you in connection with the 1989 Annual Law School Fund Campaign.

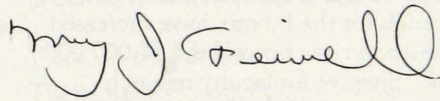

The Fund produced an all time record of $2,384,432.56, exceeding the 1988 total by $455,993.00. In addition, 6,248 alumni made a gift, increasing the average individual gift by nearly $50.00 to $286.95, which is another new record.

The first annual fund drive raised $49,000.00. Obviously, we have come a long way in the last thirty years. However, we realize more than ever, that what was raised last year is not enough. Furthermore, only 41.5% of the Law School's alumni donated to the fund. There is clearly plenty of room for improvement and we intend to do everything possible to make the 1990 campaign another record year in terms of dollars and increased number of donors.

Accordingly, as we begin our thirtieth anniversary campaign, you have my pledge and that of the over 400 volunteers who will donate their time this year, that we will leave no stone unturned in searching for additional gifts from alumni who have not recently given so that we may improve our percentage of alumni contributions and continue the unprecedented growth which the Law School Fund had enjoyed during the last twenty-nine years. With your help and with the help of the faculty our efforts will insure the academic excellence of the Law School in the years to come.

With best personal regards, I remain

Yours very truly,

Murray J. Feiwell

A Message from the Dean to the National Chair

Lee C. Bollinger
Dean of the Law School

Dear Murray,

Your dedicated leadership of the Law School Fund has produced a remarkable year of private support. To you, and to the scores of alumni volunteers who devoted so much energy and time into making this another record year for the Fund, I want to express the gratitude of the entire Law School community.

As you know, State support now accounts for a tiny fraction of the total budget of the Law School. It is fair to say that we are now a private school operating within a public university, and, as such, we rely upon private support more each year. Tuition increases have resulted in non-resident tuition exceeding $15,000 for the first time in the history of the School, increasing the student need for financial aid. The spiraling costs of books and research materials for the Library have increased acquisition costs beyond the $1,000,000 mark. Support for faculty research continued to outstrip the earnings from the endowment provided by our benefactor, William W. Cook. All these needs must be provided for by private giving — most notably by alumni contributions to the Law School Fund. The Law School and its programs have never been so reliant upon the continued strength of the Law School Fund.

As I write this letter, I am in the midst of organizing the Law School budget for this academic year. It is hard, indeed impossible, for me to describe in a letter just how immensely important the Law School Fund has become to the life of the School. The dollars contributed support a host of programs and activities at the School, such as the Moot Court program, Senior Day, and computerization of the Law Library. Without the Law School Fund this would be a fine school. With it it is an outstanding institution, one in which we all can justifiably take enormous pride.

It will be a personal pleasure for me to continue working with you, the National Committee and our many volunteers this next year. It is not an overstatement to say that maintaining the excellence of the School in the future depends, in large part, on the continued success of the Law School Fund.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Lee C. Bollinger".

Lee C. Bollinger
Dean

A Message from the Fund Director

Dear University of Michigan Law School Graduates and Friends,

The Twenty-ninth Annual Law School Fund Campaign rocketed over the $2 million mark for the first time. My sincere thanks to each of the 6,248 graduates of our Law School and the more than 1,000 non-alumni contributors who supported the 1989 Law School Fund Campaign.

What Your Contributions Do

Your contributions to the Law School Fund provide crucial financial aid resources to enable our students to continue their education; support our well-respected clinical law programs; underwrite student publications, the Campbell Moot Court Competition, the Student Senate, guest speakers and a myriad of student activities. Your gifts help improve Hutchins Hall classrooms and maintain and beautify the Law Quadrangle. Your support allows our Law Library to purchase books and research materials to maintain its world-renowned collection, provides faculty research support, and hires student research assistants. It helps fund our internationally acclaimed graduate student program, attracting students from 17 countries around the world. There is no aspect of the Law School that does not benefit from your generous support of the Law School Fund.

The Law School has come to rely on the Law School Fund more and more to maintain and strengthen our programs. We face significant financial challenges this year on many fronts. It will cost $1 million to buy books and reference materials for the Library in the year to come. The Law School Fund will help purchase the books, the pocket parts and the microfiche to assure that our Library is well-prepared to assist our students, our graduates, and the members of the bench and bar as they grapple with the legal issues of this new decade. Tuition for non-residents nears $16,000 for the first time in the Law School's history. More students will require more financial aid than ever before. The Law School Fund must address these needs.

Each time you make an annual gift to the Law School Fund you are making an investment in the strength of your Law School. Your increased investment will continue to provide the "extras of excellence" that have made Michigan a leader in legal education world-wide. On behalf of the faculty and students who benefit from your continued loyalty and generosity, I extend our heartfelt thanks.

What We Do For You

There are many ways that the Law School continues to be a vital presence in your life. We at the Law School Fund and Alumni Office act as liaison between our graduates and the Law School in a variety of ways, from replacing lost diplomas to helping reconnect old roommates long since separated. We help organize class reunions held to commemorate each five-year anniversary of graduation and sponsor alumni events throughout the country and abroad. Our faculty conduct research in various and significant areas of the law, which may help you in your practice. The Law School co-sponsors an excellent continuing legal education program through the Institute for Continuing Legal Education. A new Expedited Photocopy Service has been initiated in the Law Library which makes our 650,000+ volume collection available to you upon request. The library staff will locate, photocopy and express or telefax any of our research materials at cost.

Jonathan D. Lowe
Fund Director

At the Law School Fund and Alumni Office we work for you and we're eager to serve you better. Thank you for your steadfast and generous support. With your help we look forward to making the coming year — our Thirtieth Law School Fund Campaign — the most successful ever.

Very truly yours,

Jonathan D. Lowe
Assistant Dean

Class Summary of Percentage Giving — 1989

Reunion Fund Raising

As students, we benefited from the generosity of provident Michigan law alumni who preceded us. There is no doubt that our excellent Michigan legal education has enriched our lives and provided some measure of material success. There is no finer gift that we can give than to improve the quality of teaching, research and facilities at the University of Michigan Law School. To celebrate significant reunion years and to create a legacy of excellence, several classes have undertaken funding of professorships and renovations in Hutchins Hall.

Wade H. McCree, Jr.
(1920 - 1987)

Class of '40 • 50th Reunion Project

Wade H. McCree, Jr. Professorship

$250,000

To honor a highly accomplished lawyer, judge, teacher, and public servant and to recognize and reward merit in the Law School's most promising and accomplished faculty. This will be the first chair named after an African American at the University of Michigan or at any of the top law schools in the country.

Class of '55 • 35th Reunion Project

Moot Court Room Renovation

$350,000

To provide competent training for today's students who will spend the majority of their professional careers practicing law in the twenty-first century. This project will provide technologically advanced videotape and amplification equipment, a rearrangement of the room to more accurately reflect current courtroom design, new carpeting and acoustical window treatments, and improvements in the ventilation system.

William W. Bishop, Jr. '31
(1906 - 1987)

Class of '60 • 30th Reunion Project

"The Class of 1960 Classroom"

$300,000

To improve the quality of teaching facilities in Hutchins Hall by renovating and modernizing a major classroom. This project will create a Class of 1960 legacy that will challenge other reunion classes to help provide for the continued excellence of our Law School.

Class of '65 • 25th Reunion Project

William W. Bishop, Jr. Research Professorship

$1,000,000

To honor the memory of a friend and beloved professor and to enable one faculty member each year to complete research and finish work in progress free from the demands of the classroom. Each year the William W. Bishop, Jr. Research Professorship will provide funds for defraying salary of one full-time faculty member and for supporting costs for research assistants for an uninterrupted semester devoted exclusively to research and writing.

Planned Giving

*An investment for your future
and the future
of your Law School.*

Planned Giving

The primary motivation for making a charitable gift is the desire to support a worthwhile organization or purpose. However, direct gifts to an educational institution are recognized by the federal government as in the public interest and have tax implications. Therefore, there may be a way for you to make a current gift to the Law School, maintain or increase a stream of income for yourself or a loved one, derive tax benefits and feel good about a gift to your Law School at the same time.

The University of Michigan Office of Trusts and Bequests assists alumni and friends in determining which type of gift might best suit your particular circumstances.

- University Endowment Fund

Outright gift of cash or property invested with designated income to be enjoyed by the Law School in perpetuity.

- Charitable Remainder Trust

Income paid to the beneficiaries of the trust for life or for a set time period, with the remainder distributed to the Law School.

- Charitable Remainder Annuity Trust

Fixed income paid to the donor or to another beneficiary, with the remainder distributed to the Law School.

- Charitable Remainder Unitrust

Income paid based on a fixed per cent of the annual valuation of the trust, for life or a designated time period, with the remainder distributed to the Law School.

- The University of Michigan Donor Pooled Income Fund

Works like a mutual fund and provides an annual income to you and any designated beneficiaries. Your share of the fund is transferred to the Law School after all life income interests have expired.

Whatever your financial situation, the Law School Fund or the Office of Trusts and Bequests stand ready to help you evaluate your gift giving opportunities.

Matching Gifts

In 1989 the Law School Fund received over $175,800.00 in matching gifts. Law firms and businesses recognize that matching gift programs provide a valuable means of encouraging interest in and support to educational institutions. The Law School Fund appreciates the diligence of the alumni/ae who facilitate our receipt of matching gifts and values the important source of support that these law firms and companies provide. The University of Michigan Law School Fund is grateful to those who participate in matching gift programs.

On April 23, the Law School dedicated the Jason L. Honigman Auditorium, honoring an alumnus whose career, as Dean Lee C. Bollinger noted on the occasion, "epitomizes one this law school would like all its graduates to emulate."

"As a graduate of the school," Bollinger said during the dedication ceremony, "Jason Honigman has carried the school with him and added luster to its name and to its importance in the world. Therefore, we are pleased to have his name affixed permanently to the institution."

Born in Russia in 1904, Honigman is a 1926 graduate of the school. During his law school years, he earned Order of the Coif and was editor of the Michigan Law Review. In 1969 the school awarded him an honorary LL.D. He also received his A.B. from the U-M.

A founding partner of the Detroit law firm of Honigman Miller Schwartz and Cohn, he has also played an important public role as a scholar of state law. Author of "Michigan Court Rules Annotated," he was commissioner of the National Commission for Uniform Laws from 1963-66 and chaired Michigan's Law Revision Commission from 1967-80. From 1969-78, he was a member of the Michigan Judicial Tenure Commission, chairing that body from 1975-78.

"[H]e has demonstrated the kind of public commitment to the improvement of law and the process of administering justice that is equaled by no one," wrote Charles W. Joiner in a 1969 letter to William H. Rehnquist.

That people still feel that way about Honigman's accomplishments was abundantly clear in the remarks delivered during the dedication ceremony. Members of the Law School and legal communities joined with Mr. Honigman's friends and family to celebrate his long career and his extraordinary human qualities.

As Jason Honigman sat at the podium and listened, his son, Dan Honigman, opened the ceremony by remarking that "few have returned as much to the law as [my father] has."

"He loves the law," he added. That was why, he said, the family embraced the project of funding the renovation of a room so central to the life of the Law School.

Other speakers, including Honigman founding partner Jack Miller (AB '33, JD '35), Frederick Feldkamp (JD '71), grandson David Honigman (JD '81) and daughter Julie Levy, extolled both the man and his work, honoring Jason Honigman's human qualities as much as his professional contributions.

In a short speech closing the ceremony, Jason Honigman reflected on his past work and on his days at the University of Michigan. "Being here today," he said, "brings back wonderful memories of being here as a law student."

A plaque outside the auditorium doors bears Honigman's name, and his portrait will join others on the walls inside the Jason Honigman Auditorium. A reception at the Lawyers Club followed the ceremony.

Moskowitz Research Professorship Established

The Louis and Myrtle Moskowitz Research Professorship in Business and Law was established in March 1990 with a pledge from Republic National Bank of New York to honor the chairman of its Executive Committee, Louis Moskowitz, and the memory of his wife Myrtle Moskowitz. When fully funded, the Moskowitz Professorship will provide a faculty member from the Law School and the School of Business Administration, on a rotating basis, a one-semester leave from all teaching and administrative responsibilities to pursue research in an area of law, economics and finance. The professor will be chosen jointly by the deans of the two schools. Every third year, in lieu of the designation of a Moskowitz Professor, a forum or lecture series may be offered.

Walter H. Weiner '53, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Republic National Bank of New York, along with Law School Dean Lee C. Bollinger and Dean Gilbert R. Whitaker of the School of Business Administration, hosted a reception and dinner on May 2 at the Bank's headquarters in New York. More than 250 guests — Republic National Bank of New York executives, University of Michigan alumni, Moskowitz family members and friends — gathered to celebrate the creation of the Moskowitz Professorship and to honor Louis Moskowitz.

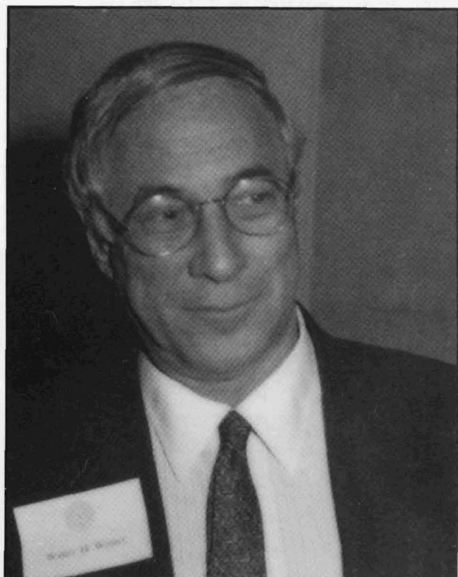

We are sad to report that on June 20, 1990, Mr. Moskowitz passed away.

Forty-five gatherings of alumni in 16 states around the country and in four foreign countries around the world during the '89 campaign year attracted over 2,000 alumni. These events took many shapes and forms — including breakfasts at state bar meetings, luncheons with the dean, substantive faculty presentations and group outings to concerts and sporting events.

A major European reunion was held in Florence in May, 1989. Attended by more than 150 European alumni and their spouses and guests, reunion activities included a panel session on European economic integration and a working session on graduate legal education at the Law School. Other festivities included a dinner honoring Professor Eric Stein's 75th birthday. Another reunion of international alumni will be held during September 1991 in Ann Arbor.

This coming fall the Law School will host eight reunions:

September 21 - 23

Classes of 1950 and 1955

October 19 - 21

Class of 1970

November 9 - 11

Classes of 1965, 1980 and 1985

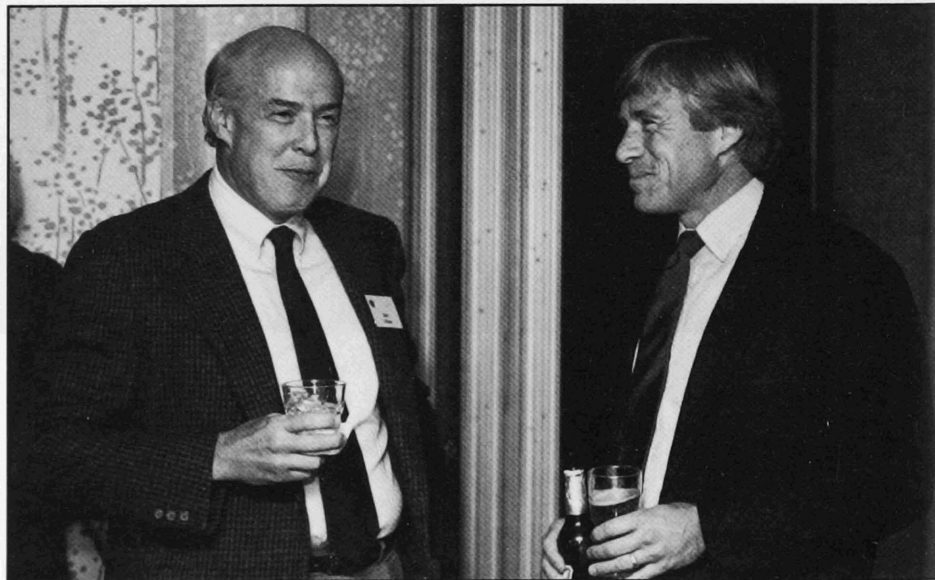

November 16 - 18

Classes of 1960 and 1975

These activities are critical to strengthening the bond between alumni and the Law School. Programming will continue to reach as many alumni as possible. Alumni interested in organizing an event in their area are encouraged to contact the alumni relations office.

International Alumni Reunion

September 20 - 22, 1991 the Law School will host an International Alumni Reunion in Ann Arbor. Plans include substantive legal programs as well as festive social gatherings. Watch your mail for more details.
