A Message from the National Chair to the Dean

Dear Lee,

I am pleased to report that the Thirtieth Anniversary Campaign produced record results for the Law School Fund.

The 1990 Annual Law School Fund Campaign saw an increase in alumni participation from 6,248 in 1989 to 6,373 in 1990. This represents an increase to 41.9% alumni participation. This year we welcomed 263 new alumni donors, up significantly from last year's 166 new donors. Overall, the Fund raised $2,454,535.74, representing an increase of $70,103.18 or nearly 3% over the previous record-setting year.

Much of this success can be attributed to the work of our more than 400 alumni volunteers, to whom I extend my heartfelt thanks and appreciation. Two of the Fund's newest programs experienced tremendous growth during the 1990 campaign. The highly successful Partners in Leadership Program grew by nearly 30% to 386 members making annual fund contributions of $1,000 or more to the Law School Fund in 1990 in five city-wide efforts. When you add individuals who contributed $1,000 or more to the Law School nationwide, there are over 460 donors who reached Partners in Leadership status. Partners contributed 45.7% of the total Fund dollars raised in 1990.

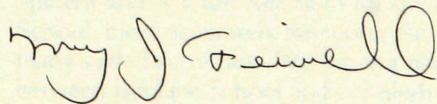

The volunteers' efforts on behalf of the newly created 100% Participation Program were terrific. Thirteen firms containing ten or more Michigan Law School graduates reached 100% alumni participation this past year. This represents 25.5% of all firms and corporations that participated. We anticipate future growth in this program over the coming years.

During the past two years, the Law School Fund has received $4,838,968.30, and has grown substantially. The Fund is on a solid foundation for future growth; with our Partners in Leadership and our 100% Participation Program, the Fund is poised to raise even more during the next two years under the leadership of Patricia Curtner.

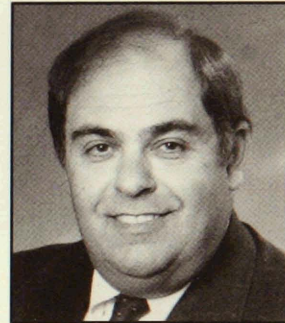

I leave the position of National Chair of the Fund with mixed emotions. The past two years have been a labor of love and I will continue to assist the Fund in any way I can to help increase support for our law school. On the other hand, it is time for the old to give way to the new. Under Patricia Curtner's able leadership, the Fund will indeed grow and prosper.

With best personal regards, I remain

Yours very truly,

Murray J. Feiwell

A Message from the Dean to the National Chair

Dear Murray,

Lee C. Bollinger
Dean of the Law School

Your irrepressible personality has lit up the Law School Fund during the past two years, as you have served so capably as our National Chair. That your service to the Law School has been a labor of love, as you say in your letter, has been apparent to everyone around you. But the infectious enthusiasm you have brought to your duties as Chair of the Fund has brought us record heights of giving. The Law School thanks you for your fine stewardship.

It is vital that we all understand how dependent the Law School is today on the generosity of its alumni and friends. Over the past half century the Law School has changed in one very significant respect: it has changed from being financially supported by public funds and tuition to being financially supported by tuition, income from a modest endowment, and the generous program of annual giving. Financially, the University of Michigan Law School is in precisely the same position as the very finest private law schools in this country, with whom it actively competes and has always been viewed as a peer institution.

Three decades ago the Law School Fund was initiated under the deanship of Allan Smith. Its purpose was to generate dollars for special projects. But, as public funding of the Law School has declined in the interim, private funding — primarily through the Law School Fund — has taken on a critical role in maintaining the School as one of the very best in the United States.

We thank you for your leadership and your role in the continued growth of the Law School Fund.

Sincerely,

A Message from the Fund Director

Dear University of Michigan Law School Graduates and Friends,

I extend our sincere appreciation to the more than 400 volunteers, 1,119 friends and 6,373 graduates of our Law School who helped make the 30th Annual Law School Fund Campaign the most successful in Law School history — raising a record $2,454,535! It was a remarkable year of private support, especially in view of the external pressures which impacted both the Law School and the country during the campaign.

The Law School now derives its entire operating budget from tuition revenues, your support for the Law School Fund, and income from our modest endowment. While we benefit in myriad ways from being a part of a state-assisted University, our financial situation is comparable to a privately-funded law school. Therefore, your generous support of the Law School Fund is crucial to the Law School's continued strength and well-being.

There is no aspect of the Law School that does not benefit from your gift to the Law School Fund. Your contributions to the Law School Fund provide crucial support for the Law Library, allowing the purchase of books and materials for its world-renowned collections, providing seed money for the Law Library computerization project now underway and help maintain its physical beauty. Your gifts also help us provide the financial aid needed by today's students as they grapple with $17,000 annual tuition. The Law School Fund helps support faculty research by funding student research assistants and providing publication support for faculty research undertaken at the Law School today. It supports student activities of all types, including the Moot Court Competition and our guest speaker series. It helps fund the internationally acclaimed graduate student program, which attracts students from more than twenty countries throughout the world.

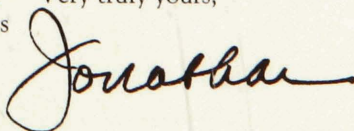

Each time you make an annual gift to the Law School Fund you are making an investment in the strength of the Law School. Your increased investment is needed to assure that Michigan maintains its worldwide preeminence in legal education. We invite you to consider becoming a Partner with the Law School by joining our growing Partners in Leadership program which recognizes our alumni and friends who make a gift of $1,000 or more during the Law School Fund's fiscal year (July 1 - June 30). As you read through this Annual Report, please be sure to notice the names of your friends and classmates who have become Partners in Leadership for the benefit of the Law School. We extend our gratitude and appreciation to all 464 of you.

This year we established a 100% Participation Program aimed at the 78 firms and corporations who include 10 or more Michigan Law School graduates. Fifty-one firms agreed to participate and provided a firm volunteer. Thirteen reached the 100% participation goal. Congratulations to the thirteen firms whose names appear on page 32, and thank you to the 51 volunteers who helped make this program so remarkably successful in its first year.

We are pleased to announce our name has changed. We are now the office of Development and Alumni Relations for the Law School, more accurately reflecting our many varied activities. We act as a liaison between the Law School and our alumni, and are here to serve you. Please let us know if we can be of assistance to you.

On behalf of the faculty and students who benefit from your continued loyalty and generosity, our heartfelt thanks.

Very truly yours,

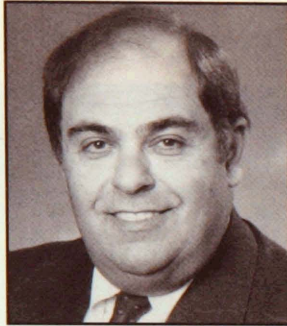

Jonathan D. Lowe

Regional Reports 1989 — 1990

The following reports summarize individual region results. Significant improvements in 1990 were made in Regions 15 (31% increase), 2 (15%), 13 (14.5%), and 10 (13%) in total dollars raised; and Regions 14 (11% increase), 6 (9.8%), and 11 (9%) in number of gifts. Regions 4, 6, and 13 had greater than 50% alumni participation.

The University of Michigan Law School gratefully acknowledges the 1990 area solicitors. Their commitment of time and resources allows the Law School to continue to be at the forefront of legal education.

The Donor Societies

Donor Societies enable the Law School to recognize publicly its most benevolent alumni and friends. Listed below are Law School alumni and friends who are members of the University of Michigan Presidential Societies. These lists reflect the exceptional patronage of a select group of donors to whom the Law School is especially grateful. Presidential Society membership is by virtue of cumulative gifts and pledges to the University as of June 30, 1991. For details on eligibility for any of the following societies please contact the Law School Development and Alumni Relations Office.

The James B. Angell Society

The James B. Angell Society recognizes those alumni and friends who have achieved gifts of $1,000,000 or more. In each case, Law School alumni who are members of the James B. Angell Society have designated all or a major portion of their gift for the Law School. The James B. Angell Society recognizes the extraordinary support and commitment of this esteemed group of donors:

Partners in Leadership

Donors whose gifts to the University of Michigan Law School total $1,000 or more (including matching gifts) during the fiscal year become Partners in Leadership. During the 1990 campaign, there was a significant increase in donors of $1,000 or more in the Detroit, Grand Rapids, and Washington, D.C. metropolitan areas, as a result of Partners in Leadership volunteers. Partners in Leadership volunteers will expand their efforts during the 1991 campaign to include New York, Chicago, Los Angeles, and Cleveland. Law School alumni and friends who are Partners in Leadership are listed below.

100% Participation Program

During the 1990 Campaign the Law School Fund initiated the 100% Participation Program aimed at obtaining participation from every Michigan Law School graduate practicing in law firms and corporations with 10 or more Michigan Law alumni. Seventy-eight firms and corporate law departments qualified for participation in this new program, and 51 agreed to work toward the 100% goal. We are pleased to report that thirteen of these firms, or 26% of those participating, reached the 100% participation goal! The 100% firms contributed over $124,000 from 279 donors. This new initiative will expand during the 1991 campaign, and will be a vital component of the Law School Fund. We invite the participation of all 78 qualifying firms and corporations. More information about joining the challenge can be obtained from the office of Development and Alumni Relations at (313) 998-7970. The Law School is pleased to recognize the following firms who attained 100% Participation.

Japanese alumni establish endowment for Japanese Legal Studies

During 1990 a fundraising effort, launched in Japan under the leadership of Professor Ryuichi Hirano and Yoichiro Yamakawa, successfully raised more than $150,000 to benefit the Japanese Legal Studies Program Endowment at the University of Michigan Law School. The Law School is grateful to the Japan Foundation and our Japanese alumni for their generous support.

Matching Gifts

In 1990 the Law School Fund received over $275,000.00 in matching gifts. Law Firms and businesses recognize that matching gift programs provide a valuable means of encouraging interest in and support to educational institutions. The Law School appreciates the diligence of the alumni/ae who facilitate our receipt of matching gifts and values the important source of support that these law firms and companies provide.

Alumni & Non-Alumni

Total Amount of Contributions
Alumni & Non-Alumni

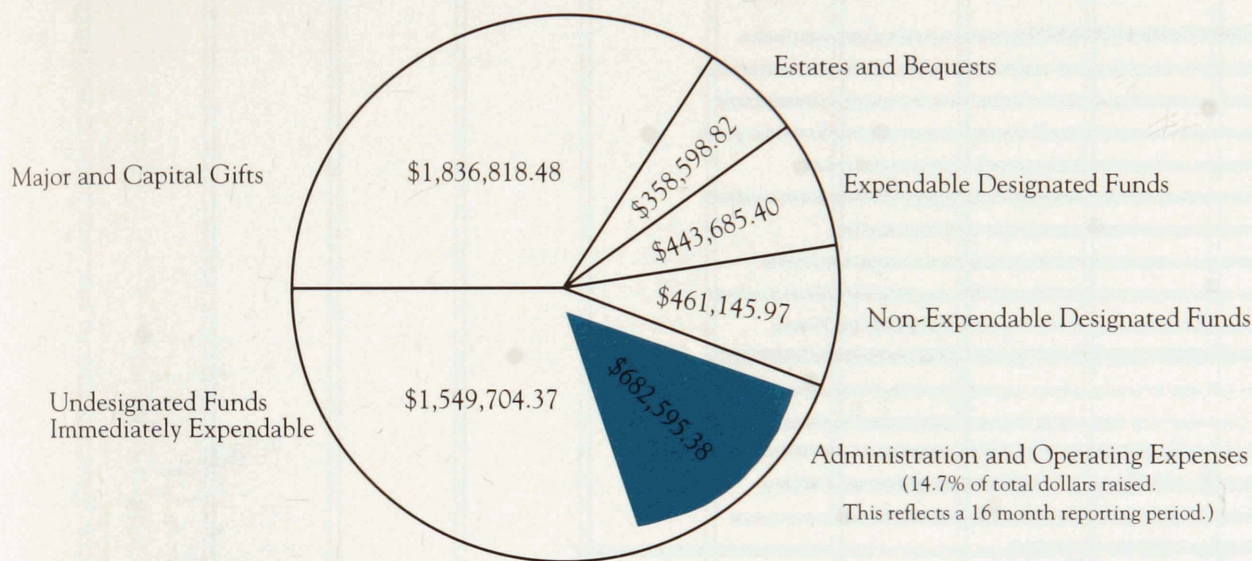

The charts above and to the right indicate the growth in total number of gifts and total dollars contributed during the Campaign. Much of this growth was attributable to the successful 100% Participation Program aimed at firms with ten or more Michigan Law School graduates. Thirteen firms out of a total fifty-one firms participating in the program reached the 100% participation goal. For a listing, please refer to page 32.

Distribution of Alumni Donors

The Distribution of Alumni Donors chart shows a significant growth in gifts of $1,000 and more, reflecting the tremendous success of our Partners in Leadership program. The program recognizes alumni and friends whose gifts to the Law School total $1,000 or more during a single Campaign.

Sources of Non-Alumni Contributions

Matching gifts are one of the most significant sources of non-alumni contributions. A list of firms and corporations who have provided matching gift support begins on page 33. We extend our sincere appreciation to those matching gift employers whose support multiplies the generosity of our alumni and friends.

Alumni Activities

Alumni activities are critical to maintaining and strengthening the bond between alumni and the Law School. During the 1990 campaign, 48 gatherings of alumni in 12 states and in two foreign countries attracted over 2,000 alumni and guests.

The Alumni Relations Office coordinates substantive presentations and social gatherings in conjunction with state and national bar association meetings, with local alumni clubs and, whenever possible, with travel schedules of the dean and faculty members.

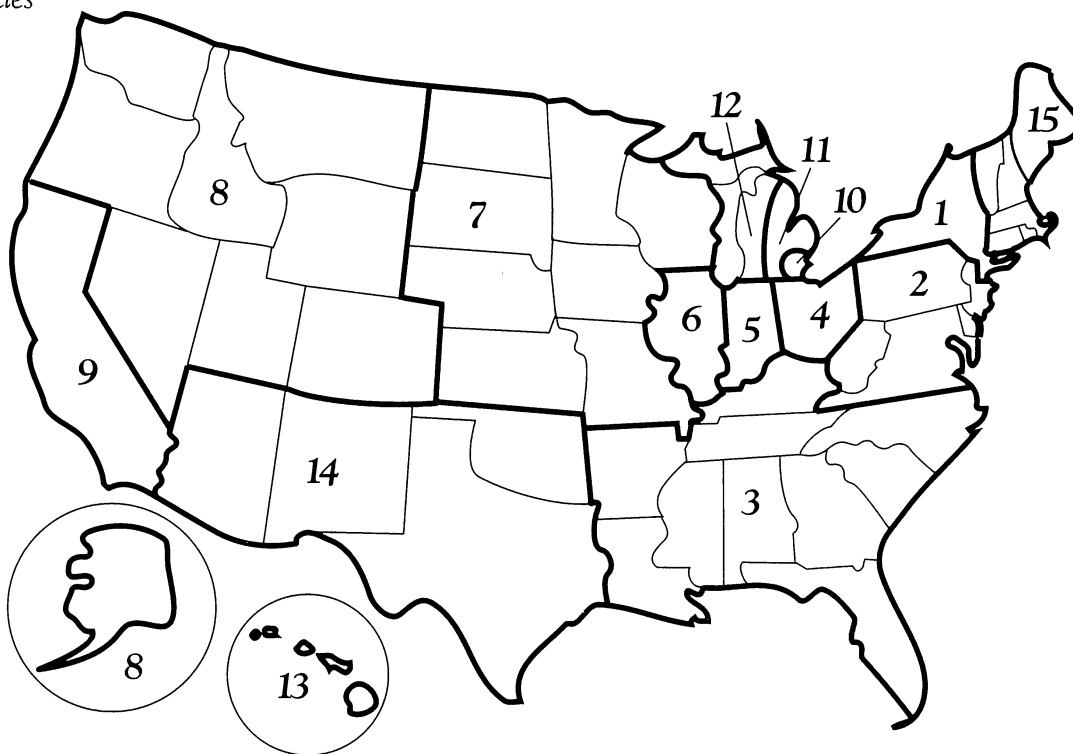

There are also several group outings to concerts and sporting events each year. Additionally, each year the office facilitates eight to ten class reunions in Ann Arbor.

Please contact the Alumni Relations Office for information about coordinating an event in your area.

International Alumni Reunion — Ann Arbor

From as near as Canada, from as far away as Malaysia, more than 100 alumni and research scholars living abroad returned to the Law School the weekend of September 19 - 21 for the School's first International Alumni Reunion in Ann Arbor. All brought memories of their Law School days, and many brought families they were eager to introduce to the School and to the colleagues and faculty members with whom they were reunited.

They were joined by 40 members of the Committee of Visitors, who convened the same weekend, and by Law School faculty and staff, to make a crowd that, including guests, numbered more than 300.

The days were filled with workshops that spanned the gamut from trends in international economic law to white collar crime; with campus tours and excursions; and most important, with a chance to renew old friendships at luncheons or in casual conversation. At night, concerts and a banquet brought participants together in an atmosphere of celebration. A fuller report of the event will follow in a subsequent Law Quadrangle Notes.

Top: Alumni brought diverse perspectives to the workshops.

Bottom: Reunion participants gathered in the Law Quadrangle for hors d'oeuvres before the Saturday evening banquet.
