

TAVERN CLUB OF CHICAGO

ART DISPLAY

SUMMER, 2003.

FOUR WORKS, IN PIXELLIST ART STYLE, BY ALMA LACH
INSPIRED BY A GIFT OF TROPICAL FLOWERS TO ALMA
BY A FRIEND

Welcome to the Tavern Club...the familiar face that greeted generations of members...

Enjoy the spectacular views, looking north up Michigan Avenue from the south bank of the Chicago River.

Enjoying beverages in advance of viewing the juried art.

The Art Show, four floral works by Alma Lach, two flanking each side of a work by another artist. The windows throughout this club make photography difficult.

Individual pictures of each of the four floral images, as they appeared displayed from left to right on the wall photos above.

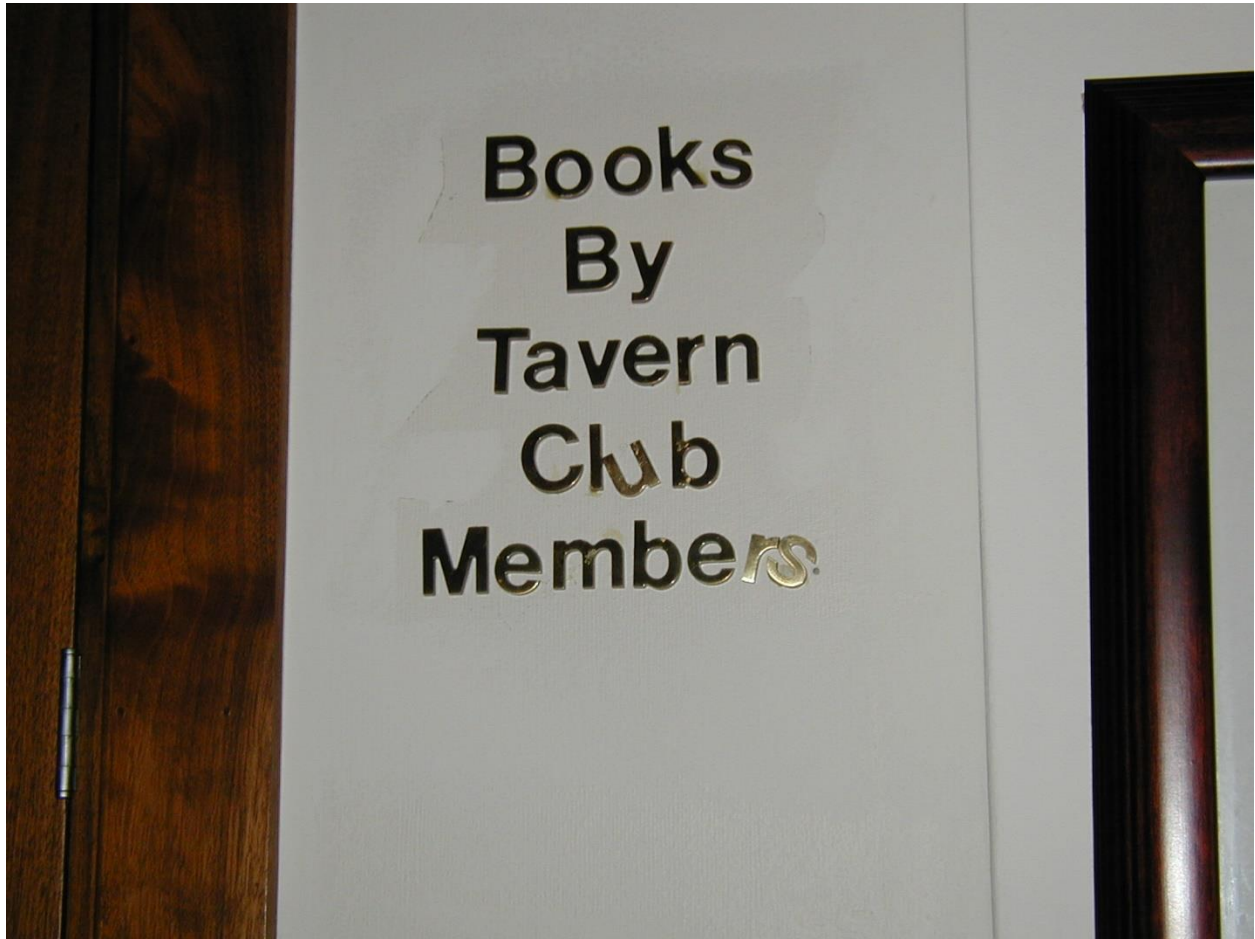

On the way out, enjoy the display of books by members.

Stick-up lettering is not as good as computer printout...

Donald's books; Alma's art.
