

Discussion Agenda

Tuesday, May 21, 1991

1. How can we collaborate as partners in business, government, and education to strengthen and diversity Michigan's economy?
2. How can we translate the seniority and influence of the Michigan Congressional delegation into more direct benefit to our state?
3. How can we sustain the momentum created by the Business Roundtable efforts to reform K-12 education, and broaden this partnership to include the full spectrum of education in our state--
K-12, higher education, job training, and lifelong learning.
