Supplementary Figure 3: Current (A) and LGM (B) species distribution models for each species used in the calculation of habitat stability maps (Fig. 3). Current distributions differ from those presented in Figure 2 in that soil has not been used in the projections due to unknown soil categories offshore.