Mr. Gray of Brookside subdivision introduced himself to the board and voiced his disapproval of the water supply in Brookside Subdivision he objected to the inadequate water supply and also to what he stated were excessive rates and questioned as to what was being done with money being collected for the water service.

Mr. Morgan answered that a study of the system was made by Mr. Allison of the Engineering Firm of Drury McNamee and Porter and by M. Capsaddle the Well driller who put down the wells. The result of the study showed that the wells were producing the amount of water which was planned for the subdivision, however due to very excessive use of water both for domestic use and lawn sprinkling the present wells might not be sufficient. Mr. Allison further suggested that it might be necessary to either put down another well or set up specific Sprinkling hours.
